"Happiest Woman In The World," Says Clara Smith Hamon

ARDMORE, OKLA., March 18.—Free of the charge of murder for the shooting of Jake L. Hamon, Republican National Committeeman from Oklahoma, and millionaire railroad and oil promoter, by a jury's verdict yesterday, Clara Smith Hamon today was planning to leave Ardmore, the scene of her ten years association with Hamon, which culminated in his shooting last November. She probably will go to Wilson, 18 miles west of here, for a short visit with her sister, and later proceed to El Paso, where her father is seriously ill.

After a trial lasting a week the jury in the Hamon case debated its verdict only forty minutes, agreeing upon acquittal on the first ballot.

"I am the happiest woman in the world," Clara Hamon said with tears streaming down her face when she heard the verdict.

Mrs. Jake L. Hamon, the widow, who attended nearly all sessions of the trial, went home when the jury retired and members of her family said she had not yet been told the verdict.

The state's final plea attacked the theory of self-defense on which Clara Hamon's case had been built, but less than an hour after Attorney General S. P. Freeling had made the final address in the trial, the defendant was receiving the congratulations of scores of the attendants at the trial.

The jury was given the case at 4:30 p. m. and returned to the court room forty minutes later. B. F. C. Laughridge, 73 years old, foreman, said only one ballot was taken, a secret one, confirmed by a rising vote.

Clara Hamon obtained the information fully seven minutes before the verdict was rendered in open court, and sat, surrounded by members of her family, half smiling, half afraid to believe the odds of assurance that they were bent toward her.

When Judge Thomas W. Champion mounted the bench and received an affirmative response to his question: "Gentlemen, have you reached a verdict?" her eyes followed the motions of the bailiff as he received the verdict from Mr. Laughridge, and handed it to the clerk to read.

Clara Hamon gasped audibly in the tiny, silent court room, dropped forward in her seat, only to be seized from behind by her younger brother "Timmie" who squeezed her violently and kissed her. Tears came to her eyes and the other members of her family cried with her as she crossed to the standing jurors and haltingly thanked them for their verdict.

"I am the happiest woman in the world," she said.

She used a secret passage from the court room to escape the crowds which threatened to overwhelm her with congratulations.

Steel Plants
To Resume

NEWPORT, KY., March 18.—Announcement was made last night by Joseph G. Andrews, of the Andrews Steel and the Newport Rolling Mill companies that the plants will be reopened and approximately 2,000 men be put to work in the two plants next Monday.

A majority of the men have been idle since just before Christmas, it was said.

ELEVEN BASIC PRINCIPLES ON WHICH LABOR WILLING TO NEGOTIATE OUTLINED

CHICAGO, March 18.—Eleven basic principles satisfactory to labor on which labor would be willing to negotiate agreements were laid down before the United States railroad labor board today by B. M. Jewell, president of the railway employees department of the American Federation of Labor.

"These fundamentals upon which the national agreements are based consist of those elementary principles and safeguards which enlightened public opinion has sanctioned and officially declared necessary to the well being of the men and women employed not only in the transportation industry, but in all basic industries," Mr. Jewell said.

Arguments upon the proposal of the railroad executives to abrogate the national agreements has occupied the attention of the board since January 21, when the request was submitted by W. W. Atterbury, vice president of the Pennsylvania railroad.

The fundamentals which are the basis of the national agreement are as follows, Mr. Jewell said:

The eight hour day.

Proper overtime rates for work in excess of eight hours.

Arrangements of working shifts for reasonable living arrangements by employees and their families.

Reasonable rules for the protection of health and safety of employees.

Definition of the work of each craft to be performed by mechanics and helpers.

Formulation of apprenticeship rules.

Four years apprenticeship requirement for mechanics.

Right of the majority of each craft to determine what organization shall represent them.

Right to select a committee to handle grievances.

Limiting of craft seniority to local shops and not permitting interchange of seniority with other shops or crafts, and.

Right to organize without discrimination.

"If machinery is to be successfully established for the peaceful settlement of disputes," said Mr. Jewell, "these fundamental principles are an absolutely necessary preliminary."

"We have no doubt that the railway labor board will sanction these fundamentals. We know the public will support them when it really knows the truth."

"Our reasons for summarizing these fundamentals at this time is to demonstrate how easy it would have been had the railroads been sincere to meet with those who have been selected and instructed by the rank and file of railroad employees to adjust the whole matter of national agreements. Well rounded and smooth running machinery would now be in operation and peace on railroads and employees would prevail, where now exists growing distrust, dissension, dissatisfaction and increasing rumblings of a fast approaching, costly and vicious conflict."

"Even now if the representatives of the railways were sincere in their at-

ASK HARDING TO PLACE AN EMBARGO ON FARM GOODS

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 18.—President Harding had under advisement today an appeal from western senators and representatives that he place an immediate embargo on the importation of a number of farm commodities, including wool, hides, meats and butter, represented as most keenly affected by foreign competition. When the request was made in conference late yesterday, President Harding, after being told that many producers in those lines faced ruin unless relief was forthcoming, indicated that he desired to confer with certain members of his cabinet before acting on the appeal. Other products on the proposed embargo list were lemons, cotton seed oil and long staple cotton.

Adhering to its program for rushing through at the special session of congress an anti-dumping bill, together with an added American valuation measure, possibly to be combined in one bill, the house ways and means committee referred to treasury department officials today its resolution adopted yesterday requesting them to frame a rough draft for its consideration.

With the committee also still holding firmly to the view that a permanent tariff bill should have priority over tax revision on the legislative program, it was intimated by Chairman Foreney that the actual work of writing the tariff measure might be begun when the committee met today.

At the treasury department, although Secretary Mellon publicly has expressed no views on the question of priority for tariff or revenue revision, officials already have begun the formulation of a tax revision policy.

Miner's Union Will Resist Wage Cuts

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., March 18.—Any attempts to reduce wages of coal miners in the United States will be resisted by the miners' union, John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, declared today in an announcement such a policy had been approved by the union's executive board, now in session here.

The union miners, it was said, have contracts at present wage scales that continue until March 31, 1922.

Springfield Movie Men To Test Sunday Law

SPRINGFIELD, O., March 18.—Despite the receipt of a letter from County Prosecutor Donald Kirkpatrick, calling attention to the fact that motion pictures on Sunday are illegal, and threats from members of the Ministerial Association to prosecute violators, local theater men announced that their theaters will be open Sunday as usual.

"We might as well have a show-down now as at any other time," said an exhibitor today.

It is expected that the opening of the theaters next Sunday will result in the filing of several affidavits in local courts Monday to test the statute.

Ohio Delegates To Farm Meeting Are Announced

COLUMBUS, O., March 18.—Ohio's delegates to the national meeting of farm organizations at Chicago, April 5, when the grain marketing plan of the committee of 17 of the American Farm Bureau Federation will be voted on, it became known today, will be: H. ## U. S. Troops And Immigration Officials Have Battle With Mexican Smugglers On Border

Sunny Portico To Help Wilson In Fight To Regain His Health

Front view of the new home of the Wilsons, and the sunny south portico where Wilson can continue his sun baths.

Relieved of all the cares which could not be lifted entirely from his shoulders while he remained in the White House, ex-President Wilson hopes to regain more rapidly his health. And the new home of the Wilsons on S street, northwest in Washington, has a south portico admirably adapted to the ex-president's sun baths, no matter what the weather.

EL PASO, TEXAS, March 18.—United States soldiers and immigration officers early today were patrolling the Mexican border near here when from 10 o'clock last night until 1 a. m. they had exchanged shots with a party believed to be Mexican smugglers, in which three Americans were wounded.

The Mexicans opened fire on three American immigration officers who discovered the Mexicans fording the Rio Grande, which is about 50 yards wide at that point. The return fire of the immigration officers apparently wounded one of the three Mexicans wading the river, and was immediately answered by fifteen concealed in bushes in the Mexican side.

Five more inspectors and 100 soldiers of the 48th Infantry from El Paso responded to a call for assistance and for more than an hour the firing continued. The Americans firing at the bushes of the Mexican guns. An occasional scream of pain from the Mexican side indicated that the American fire was not without results. At 1 a. m. the Mexicans' fire died down and a dim light was visible moving about on the Mexican side.

C. A. Perkins, inspector in charge of the immigration men, said he believed the Mexicans were attempting to smuggle over liquor or drugs. The three Americans wounded were: Private M. J. Keller, Company D, 48th Infantry, shot in left arm and scalp wound.

Private — Petroski, shot through hip, believed serious.

Joseph Thomas, immigration inspector, scalp wound.

STRIKE VOTE IS ALMOST UNANIMOUS

CHICAGO, March 18.—Official results of the strike vote taken Wednesday by packing house employees in many midwestern cities were to be announced today at headquarters of the Amalgamated Order of Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen. In a few cities, union leaders said, the vote had not yet been completed, but unofficial reports indicate almost unanimous sentiment in favor of a strike unless the packers' wage reduction and re-arrangement of working hours was suspended pending arbitration. Reports of almost unanimous strike votes were received from Cleveland, Fort Worth and Cedar Rapids.

Tallying of the vote taken at the Chicago stockyards last night showed 13,297 votes favoring a strike out of the first 14,819 votes counted. At Omaha 6,841 votes were cast, 5,100 of them favoring a strike. Only two of the first 100 ballots counted at Kansas City were against a strike.

A statement by six of the smaller packers made public today through the American Institute of Meat Packers, announced that most of them have been forced to shut down their plants to avert further losses due to material costs and wage rates under the war time agreements.

A telegram Dennis Lane, secretary-treasurer of the butcher workmen, to Secretary Davis of department of labor, charged that the packers were attempting to stampede the employees into a runaway strike.

Over Hundred Shots Fired At State Police

CHARLESTON, W. VA., March 18.—More than 100 shots were fired at the six state police stationed at Willishbranch, a mining town, Tuesday night, according to a long distance message received here today from Glen Jean, a nearby village. The report said that the shots, which were fired from the mountains, were returned by the police. No fatalities were reported.

Colonel Jackson Arnold, in command of state police, said today that there was no truth in the report. He admitted, however, that re-enforcements were being sent to Willishbranch, but asserted that the orders sending them there had nothing to do with reports of recent fights.

It is understood that an additional force of twelve state police are being transferred to Willishbranch from Mingo county. It was said unofficially that the movement is in keeping with the announced policy of Governor Morgan to curb lawlessness in the state.

FALL OF KRONSTADT CONFIRMED

STOCKHOLM, March 18.—Reports that the Russian naval fortress of Kronstadt, the center of the revolution against the soviet government, has been taken by the Bolsheviks appear to be confirmed in dispatches reaching here from Finland. Leon Trotsky, Russian Bolshevik minister of war, directed the assault on the fortress, it is said, and hurried upwards of sixty thousand men at its defenses.

Advices would seem to indicate that Communists within the fortress and town of Kronstadt assisted the Bolshevik forces when the latter had broken into the outer forts of the place. The garrison, numbering approximately 15,000, is declared to have been exhausted by the constant bombardment of the place and were poorly equipped in some important points along the defense lines. Many of the defenders of Kronstadt, together with the commander of the revolutionary troops, are reported to have escaped into Finland across the ice.

PRESIDENT REFUSES TO LET AMERICA BE INVOLVED

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
(Copyright, 1921, by Times Pub. Co.)
WASHINGTON, Mar. 17.—President Harding has had his first taste of the Irish problem and has met the issue squarely by declining to permit the United States Government to be drawn into any action that might be construed as a recognition of the Irish Republic. Mr. Harding received a telegram couched in terms so displeasing and so caustic that he did not answer it in person but directed his Secretary to sign the reply. The message which was sent by John F. Harrigan, state president of the Massachusetts Council of the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic read as follows:

"To President Harding: General Ruckman and Admiral Dunn in press statements today say that to permit troops to march in partisan demonstration especially one unfriendly to another nation would be a serious breach of international amity. Evacuation of the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic of loyalty and patriotism that no devotee of Toryism, no matter how exalted his position, can stop. Are these officials Americans or satellites of foreign governments? Ruckman and Dunn asked the officials of the Evacuation Day parade if the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic intends to participate in the parade. When they were told 'yes' they warned against the parade, with them of men in United States uniform whether in service or reservists. Are they autocrats or is this a democracy? They say no authority revoke this decree. It is for Washington to say whether they are supreme. As Americans we demand action in the name of 125,000 citizens of our state, now, and the revocation of orders from Ruckman and Dunn."

"U. S. To New Hands of
The White House has not yet decided the foregoing message and also this reply by Secretary Christian.

"Your telegram has been called to the attention of the President and the directs me to say in reply that army and navy commanders have authority to direct the forces under their command. The Government reserves the right about the fitness of your celebration of Evacuation Day and the spirit of St. Patrick's Day is felt throughout our country, but the naval and military forces to the nation can have no part in any demonstration which may be construed as influencing the foreign relations of the Republic."

The sending of the Harrigan message to Mr. Harding was the subject of a long conference after which President Harding decided that it was time to make clear the position of his Administration on the Irish question. He himself feels the warmest sympathy with the aspirations of the Irish people and were he an individual without official responsibility for the conduct of foreign relations he would gladly speak his views or even participate as he pleased in any demonstrations in behalf of the Irish cause.

But as President of the United States, in charge of foreign relations and obliged daily to deal with the Government of Great Britain with which the United States is at peace, he cannot permit anything to happen which might lead to a misunderstanding of the Irish situation.

Secretary Weeks, of the War Department who hails from Massachusetts and knows the Irish influence in that State, joined with Secretary Denby, of the Navy Department, in upholding the action of General Ruckman and Admiral Dunn in refusing to permit American soldiers and sailors to march in a parade where the flag of any unrecognized country was flown.

RAILROAD UNIONS ATTEMPT TO PROVE INSINCERITY OF RAILROADS IN DEALING

CHICAGO, March 18.—Railroad labor unions today presented what they termed their "bill of rights" to the railroad labor board and then began an attempt to prove insincerity of the roads in their dealings with the unions by cross-examining high railroad officials who had been summoned by the board at the request of the unions.

Frank E. Walsh, labor attorney, conducted the cross-examination. He read correspondence between railroad leaders which was furnished by R. S. Binkerd, secretary of the labor committee of the Association of Railway Executives.

One letter from Mr. Binkerd to T. Dewitt Cuyler, chairman of the association, reported that the committee had voted in favor of one or more national boards of national agreement, only W. W. Atterbury, vice president of the Pennsylvania railroad, voting against the plan. Mr. Atterbury, the letter said, had submitted a minority report against the plan and this report later was adopted sixty to forty-one by the railroads in an individual ballot.

Harding Not To Embarrass Allies In Attempt To Solve German Problem

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 18.—(By the Associated Press)—Allied occupation of additional German territory is understood to have presented to President Harding a new problem arising from a relation of these changed conditions to previous plans for early declaration by congress of the ending of the state of war between the United States and Germany.

Some congressional leaders who all along have been for a peace resolution still think that solution should be applied as soon as possible.

Other leaders, however, who are known to be very close to the president, fear that it would cause embarrassment to the nations with which the United States was associated in the war and should be deferred until the situation in Germany which caused the occupation had clarified itself.

President Harding is represented as having approached his study of the question with the view that the United States should exercise caution in whatever steps it determines to take in order that there should be no complications of the already difficult situation faced by the allies.

In line with this viewpoint, attention has been called that American troops are in Germany as a war measure and not under any treaty provision. Termination of the war, it is argued, would automatically require withdrawal and the present administration, through Secretary Weeks, of the war department, has stated that this is not now under contemplation.

It has been contended both abroad and by those in Washington opposed to early action terminating the state of war that withdrawal of the troops at this time would lend encouragement to Germany in resisting demands of the allies as to reparations payments.

President Harding's position may not be revealed until his message delivered to the sixty-seventh congress at the opening of the special session on April 11. Before the new dispute with Germany arose it had been expected that an important place in that communication would be given to urging adoption of the resolution to end the war state. Owing to the changed conditions, however, some congressional leaders were doubtful as to what the president might then have to say on this point.

Will Present Joint Playlets

"They WORK while you sleep"

Take one or two Cascarets occasionally to keep your liver and bowels active. When bilious, constipated, head-achy, unstrung or fat a coil, upset stomach, or bad breath, nothing acts so nicely as Cascarets. Children love them too. 10, 25, 50 cents.

Joint Playlets by the Pond Run and Sciotoville schools under the auspices of the County Red Cross will be given at the P. H. S. auditorium Saturday at 1:45 p. m.
The Pond Run School will stage the health playlet "Faint and Aired" and Sciotoville, "Miss Fresh Air, Visiting Nurse." The entire performance will not last over an hour and the public is invited. There will be no charge for admission. Children under 12 years of age must be accompanied by an older person.
The program is as follows:
Orchestra—Featuring "Harmony Four."
Playlet—Pond Run School.
Chorus—Fifth Grade of the Campbell Avenue School.
Chorus—"God's Country"—Junior Red Cross.
Piano Solo—Ted Macquard, Sciotoville.
Dance—Geneva Adams, Martha Bierley, of Sciotoville.
Violin Trio—Ward Halstead, Richard Tennett, Lewis Reinhardt, accompanied by Ted Macquard, all of Sciotoville.
Playlet—"Miss Fresh Air, Visiting Nurse," by the Sciotoville schools.
Vocal Solo—Donald Elwell, accompanied by Mrs. C. E. Nodler.
Dance—Sailor's Horn Pipe—Dorothy Bache.
Dance and Chorus—Minnet—Mary McQuire, William Plummer, accompanied by the Junior Red Cross chorus.
Those taking part in the Pond Run playlet are: Elizabeth Riggs, Leslie Stout, William Jewell, Roy Swearingen, Wilbur Swearingen, Chester Riddout, Robert Shields, Carrie McGlone, Ruth Ratcliffe, Emma Jewell, Fred Riddout, Donald Elliott, Ralph McGlone, Orville Shaw and Anna May Jewell.
Those from Sciotoville in the playlet are Lonnie Carr, Kathleen Stewart, Eugene Patterson, Orville Bryant, George Gill, Clifford Shoemaker, Gen. Reinhardt, Helen Smedley, Gaynel Jenkins, Virginia Bailey, Bonnie Lou Warnock, and Minnie Stephens.

Has Husband Arrested

CINCINNATI, O., March 18.—Henry Dayless, former Cleveland railroad man, who was followed through many states by his wife until he finally was located and arrested at Houston, Texas, was bound over to the grand jury today on a charge of bigamy. Dayless was brought to Cincinnati from Houston several days ago and the preliminary hearing was in municipal court today.
The warrant sworn to by Mary Bacon Dayless, alleged that they were married at Cleveland, July 8, 1911, and that on March 24, 1920, Dayless married Verne Smith, of Dayton, Ky., in Cincinnati, under the name of Henry S. Davis.

Merchandise Thieves In Gun Battle With Sleuths

CINCINNATI, O., March 18.—More than fifty shots were exchanged by railroad detectives and a number of alleged merchandise thieves, in the yards of the Big Four Railroad here late last night. So far as known, however, no one was hit. After a quick rush the officers seized two men who had leaped from a motor truck that contained two large cases of men's clothing said to have a valuation of approximately $5,000.
Two men arrested after the skirmish were registered as Leonard Walters, 33, and Mark Farndell, 30, both of Cincinnati. Both are chauffeurs. They denied ownership of loaded pistols that were found in the auto truck containing the stolen cases.
After the capture of Walters and Farndell, a west side grocer reported his truck had been stolen.

To Lift Smallpox Quarantine
COLUMBUS, O., March 18.—Smallpox quarantine, which has prevented prisoners confined in the city prison workhouse from being released for the last two weeks, will be lifted Monday, according to Health Officer Dick.

For Biliousness

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea
Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied, with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.
A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through the hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color, and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.—Adv.

Coal Operator Visits City

R. V. Wohlford, of Smalley, Ky., proprietor of the Pined Rock Coal Co., one of the prosperous mines of Kentucky, is in the city, the guest of his life-long friend, J. S. Johnson, of Johnson Brothers, automobile dealers, 504 Chillicothe street. Mr. Wohlford, who ships coal extensively over the N. & W. road, states that Portsmouth impresses him as being one of the best towns he ever visited. He was turned all over the city by Mr. Johnson, and met many of the prominent citizens while here.

Harding Thanks Flower Woman

NEWPORT, K., March 18.—Mrs. Antoinette Beccard, of Southgate, Ky., who was probably the best known "flower woman" in the United States, when she retired a few years ago today received the formal note of thanks for a huge bouquet of American beauty roses she sent to President Harding for his inauguration.
Mrs. Beccard began selling flowers on Cincinnati streets when she was 16 years old. She said she is now past 72.

Jail Delivery Is Frustrated

HUNTINGTON, March 18.—Jail delivery in the county jail was frustrated in an attempt to deliver this morning by County Jailor Al. Ross after they had saved part way to liberty through the steel doors of their cells with improvised steel saws made from steel pipe taken from a woman's corner. They planned, it was learned, to saw their way into the corridor and there lay in wait for the jailer when he entered the cell room. After putting the jailer out of the way, they intended a general delivery.

PITTSBURGH MAN MAKES WONDERFUL STATEMENT

Declares Tanlac Enabled Him To Eat Better, Sleep Better and Work Better.—Has Gained Thirty Pounds.

HARRY M. ALLEN
Of Pittsburgh, Pa.

"I consider Tanlac the grandest medicine in the world, for I have actually gained 30 pounds in weight since I began taking it. It has just simply filled me with new life and energy and, for the first time in years I can sit down to the table and enjoy three square meals a day like other people. In fact Tanlac has made me eat better, feel better, sleep better and work better, and I guess that's all a man can expect of a medicine."

"Before I took Tanlac, I was off 25 pounds in weight and was so badly run down I was hardly able to do any work. Nothing seemed to agree with me and my food invariably soured on my stomach. I would always have an uncomfortable bloated up feeling in my stomach, and although I tried many kinds of medicines, I never got relief until I took Tanlac."

"I also suffered considerably at times from Rheumatism, but this has all disappeared. In fact this wonderful medicine has made a new man out of me in every way. I feel years younger and can do as much work as in any day of my life."

"Of course, I am only too glad to give you my testimonial because I want other people who are suffering as I did to take this medicine and get relief."

The above remarkable statement was made by Harry M. Allen, residing at 1000 Saint Martin Street, Pittsburgh, Pa., a well known employee of the Oliver Iron & Steel Company of that city. Mr. Allen is a well known member of the United Presbyterian Church and is highly respected by all who know him.

Tanlac is sold in Portsmouth by the Fisher and Streich Pharmacy and the leading druggists in every town.

"Hands Off" Is
Harding Policy

Met Issue Squarely.
Mr. Harding during the last campaign was regarded for a time as likely to take an active part when elected to furthering the Irish sympathizers. He did not hesitate, however, when the issue was put before him in October, to state that he regarded the question of Irish freedom as a matter between Ireland and Great Britain and he held that it was not within the province of the United States Government to interfere in any manner.

Governor Cox, on the other hand, said he would agree to take the Irish problem for settlement before the League of Nations and would, if elected, bring it officially to the attention of the foreign Government. This was not, however, regarded by the Irish as of any importance because they were ranged against the League of Nations itself. Notwithstanding Governor Cox's statement, the great body of Americans of Irish descent left the Democratic party and voted the Republican ticket. If by their votes they hoped to influence Mr. Harding into taking a stand when President that he was unwilling to take as a candidate, today's statement from the White House may be construed as dashing to the ground any such hopes. Mr. Harding has made it clear that he will not depart from the policy pursued by President Wilson of refusing to make an official issue of the Irish question.

Opposed To Independence
For Philippines

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., March 18.—Independence for the Philippine Islands at present was opposed by George H. Fairchild, publisher of the Manila Times, in a statement today.

Mr. Fairchild declared that he did not believe the Philippines were advanced to such a stage that they would benefit by independence. He urged instead the establishment of a territorial form of government for the islands.

"The question affects all the English speaking peoples," he said, adding that Philippine independence would result to the benefit of other nations.

Mr. Fairchild declined to comment on reports that he was under consideration for appointment as governor general of the islands, or to say anything definite regarding the conference in Washington which are the principal business of his journey from the islands.

Two American
Bluejackets
Are Killed

ON BOARD THE U. S. PENNSYLVANIA, OFF GUANTANAMO CUBA, March 18.—(By wire to the Associated Press)—Walter Johns, a chief gunner mate, was killed when he jumped from an observation balloon which broke adrift from the battleship Florida off Guantanamo yesterday during maneuvers by the United States fleet.

The body was recovered and taken aboard the hospital ship Bellef. A. D. McNeill, attached to the seaplane fleet of the division, was also killed Thursday by the propeller of a seaplane shortly after the seaplane had rescued the members of the crew of another observation balloon which broke loose from the battleship Nevada. The body has not been recovered.

A dispatch from Havana Thursday reported that a captive balloon with a crew of three men, among them Captain Miller, of the medical corps, had broken from its moorings at the United States naval station at Guantanamo.

From your writing, I judge that you are too young to go "steady" as you express it. It is better for you to enjoy the life of a single man and to think less of the girl and enjoy a wholesome youthful time with several.

Scissors—Get Jackspar at the drug store and wash the hair in a tea made of it. Tie the head up in a towel for about two hours, then comb and wash in soap and water, rinsing thoroughly. Another way is to rub kerosene into the head and let hang for awhile before washing. It is a day or two repeat. Do not rub vigorously as the scalp will burn.

Reed will receive very informally Saturday afternoon from 2 until 4:30 in Mrs. Kline's home on Fourth street, in honor of their granddaughter and daughter, Miss Evelyn Reed. All church friends, club friends and others are to be considered invited. No other invitation than through the press will be issued.

An interested audience assembled at Holy Redeemer school last night for the performance of "The Shamrocks of Ireland," given by the pupils in commemoration of the memory of St. Patrick. The playlet, interspersed with specialty numbers, Irish songs and dances, piano and orchestral selections, were received with much applause.

The cast of characters included: Kathleen O'More—Marjorie Winters.

Evelyn O'More—Fay Horton.
Annetta—Helen Doerr.
Eileen—Marguerite Clark.
James, the historian—Fred Stokes.
Madge, "Mrs. Mulligan"—Hyndee Powell.

Helen, "Mrs. Moriarty"—Evelyn Duschinski.

Mrs. O'More, mother of Evelyn—Mary McMahon.

Mrs. Farrell, a good friend of Mrs. O'More—Frances Schroeder.

Mrs. Hobbs, a stranger—Mildred Reed.

Accompanist—Ruth White.

The attractive landscape shown in the fashion window for a background is the artistic work of J. B. Held of the Harris Photograph studio.

Mrs. W. R. Thomas of Mount street spent yesterday shopping in Cincinnati.

Mrs. Frank Weckner of Milwaukee is here for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. William Z. Tritschler, Moulton Place.

(Ironically)

Mrs. W. N. Dainrou, who has been visiting with Wheelersburg relatives and also in Ironton, left Thursday for a visit in Huntington before returning to her home in Cincinnati.

Mrs. Hayden Bush of Second street has as house-guest Miss Agnes Dugan of Roanoke, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Atlas and baby daughter of Timonons avenue are at home from Louisville, Ky., where they attended the funeral of a relative.

The Misses Helen and Jane Vergen of this city have concluded a delightful visit with relatives in Ironton.

A number of young friends were the guests of Miss Pauline Coburn last evening in the home of her brother and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Coburn on Twenty-Second street. The guests were Misses Minnie and Martha Clare, Ruth Sprague, Lucille Ruggless, Messrs. Arthur Vandenberg, Charles Mills, Robert Clark, Lawrence Foster and Donald Gulkar.

Mrs. Alice Kelley and son, Fred, have returned to Ironton after a short visit to Portsmouth relatives.

WHY DAYTON ADOPTED A SLIDING SCALE OF GAS RATES

DAYTON, MARCH 18—Dayton's natural gas controversy has been settled with the adoption of an ordinance which provides for a sliding scale of rates. It sets the price of natural gas at 50 cents per 1,000 cubic feet for the first 5,000; 55 cents per 1,000 for the next 5,000; 60 cents per 1,000 for the next 10,000 feet, and $1 per 1,000 for all over 20,000 cubic feet. The measure has gone into effect.

The decision of the city commission to approve the sliding scale of rates and settle the gas question was due largely to a report on the natural gas situation by J. E. Barlow, then city manager of Dayton. Unprejudiced, and acting solely in the interest of the people of Dayton, Barlow made a thorough investigation of the situation and in his report pointed out the value of natural gas as a fuel, the need of conservation because of the rapid depletion of the supply, and the necessity for an increased rate.

spread evenly over this small quantity, would make a fair price per 1,000 cubic feet extremely burdensome to the consumer.

"The same argument holds true for allowing the use of gas by industries in the summer, as such use will allow a lower price to the domestic consumer. It is true that to prohibit the use of gas for industrial use would conserve it; nevertheless, such a result can only be brought about with justice by national action, as other companies getting gas from the same fields that Dayton does would continue to use it for industrial purposes until so restrained.

"It must be kept in mind at all times that the utility as well as the public is entitled to a fair deal and that the public gains nothing in the long run by starving a public utility as the poor service resulting more than offsets any saving."

"The shortage of natural gas is not local to Dayton. During the past couple of years it has been quite general throughout Ohio, West Virginia, Pennsylvania and New York, the amount now being produced being less each year to meet the increasing demand, merely repeating the history of all gas fields. We have apparently reached the point where the decreasing yield will bring more frequent and more prolonged shortage, which will try everyone's patience, and large sums of money in the aggregate will be spent by individuals to supplement their appliances with electricity, coal oil stoves, etc. This condition has been brought about sooner than was expected by enormous quantities used in war industries."

Cottage Meetings Success

After all attendance returns had been received, it was found by careful computation that 286 people were present at the fifteen cottage prayer meetings held under the auspices of the First Christian church Thursday evening. This was an average of practically twenty to the meeting, a splendid showing, and one that convinces Rev. Oakley that the eight day revival that is to start next Sunday, March 20, is going to be a great meeting in every sense of the word. The largest meeting held during the week of prayer was the one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Warren, 1316 Kinney street, Thursday night, 43 people being in attendance.

PILES TREATED BY NON-SURGICAL METHODS
Sufferers of hemorrhoids, piles, internal and external, can be cured without surgery. Dr. L. M. Ross, 185 1/2 N. High St., Columbus, Ohio, has a special treatment for piles. Send for Free Booklet on Rectal Diseases.

Attention is called to the fact that the meeting booked for the home of Mrs. Rachel Journey for tonight has been called off and a "double leader" will be held at the home of Mrs. McQuillan, 201 Front street. Sickness in the Journey home made necessary the change in the schedule. The meeting at Mrs. McQuillan's will be in charge of

of W. C. Yeager and Miss Violet McFarland.

Miss Julia Sells of Newark, Ohio, who is to have charge of the singing during the revival, will arrive in the city Saturday and desires to meet the big chorus at the church that evening. The session will last but a short time and every member of the choir is kindly asked to be there promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

Tom Brown, negro, who was held to the grand jury from Municipal court several days ago on a charge of highway robbery, was ordered released from the county jail Friday by Judge Gilliland following a rehearing of the case on the application of the defendant to be discharged.

Youths Given Another Chance

Alva and William Mofford and Earl Cooley, Bonafide youths charged with delinquency in connection with their arrest for shoplifting at the Woolworth Toy and Store, admitted guilt when brought into juvenile court Friday.

The case of John Adkins, 15, arrested on a charge of stealing a pair of shoes was continued pending the arrest of other youths said to have been implicated in the theft.

Address Rotarians

At the regular meeting of the Rotary club held Thursday night the members enjoyed a splendid talk delivered by John L. Shuff of Cincinnati. Mr. Shuff has traveled extensively and has many interesting stories of life to relate.

ALL SAINTS' PARISH NEWS

The Rev'd John Collins Jackson, D. D., preaches at 7:30 p. m. this Friday evening, and the pastor particularly desires all who can do so to attend this service.

The church will be beautifully decorated with Royal Florida palms for the Sunday services. Palms will be blessed and carried in procession at the High Celebration and Palm Crosses distributed at the close of the service. The service will commence at 10:30 a. m.

Interest grows apace in the Sacred Meditation on The Crucifixion which is to be sung in All Saints' Church on Good Friday evening. Of its kind there is no music so beautiful as Sir John Stainer's great work and scores of people have already announced their intention of availing themselves of this opportunity to hear it rendered by a corps of soloists fully competent to do it justice.

Have you mailed your ballot on the "New Church" question yet? If not you are urged to attend to this important duty at once.

We are ready with the best selection of Bloch's Suits for Young Men and Men Who Stay Young

The young men buy Bloch's clothes because they find in them the style leadership, the up to the minute colorings and fabrics and the finest hand tailoring. The older man who keeps a spring in his step likes them for their youthful dignity and for their integrity in both material and workmanship. They tell a story of value forty percent lower than that of last fall. There is no occasion for a man to go around this Spring wearing old clothes, that is if he buys reasonably soon. From conditions in the clothing market, as they are today we can not duplicate these clothes to sell as low as we sell them now.

Soap Will Stop It.

An ordinary piece of kitchen soap is one of the best lubricants. A corner of the cake rubbed on the metal of a latch that will not work, on the corse of a window that sticks, on burnt drawers or doors that will not open and close easily will remedy the trouble in remarkably quick time.

Dates Back to Revolution.

The expression "smart as a Philadelphia lawyer" has been traced back to pre-Revolutionary days and its exact origin is not known. It seems that in those days the Philadelphia bar was noted for the shrewdness and cleverness of its members and the expression was current as a term to signify such traits.

First Users of Tobacco.

Although many efforts have been made to show that the use of tobacco was known to the ancient Greeks and Egyptians, it has not been conclusively proven. It is generally accepted that the American aborigines are entirely responsible and that Columbus was the first to chronicle its use.

Women Crowd Church To Hear Evangelist

Some farsighted women yesterday afternoon, determined to miss nothing of Mrs. Demarest's famous address to women only on "The Virgin Mary" were at the First Presbyterian church as early as 1:30 p. m., an hour and a half before the service began. Their vision was rewarded, for long before three o'clock the church was filled and hundreds were turned away unable to get nearer than the doors. Every available inch of standing room, around the walls, in the gallery, was utilized to the full, and the youthful steps accommodated their quota also. Hamilton reported a thousand women to hear this famous address last December, but Portsmouth may also hold its head high, for that many eager auditors were within the church, and no one knows how many came and were unable to find admission. Few women who were in the church yesterday will ever forget the message Mrs. Demarest gave to them of her own sex, a message sure to be reflected in the future home life of the city. As given to a reporter, the general drift of her message fell into four divisions: Mary was what she was because she was first of all, "the handmaid of the Lord," obedient to His will; second, that "Mary pondered these things," thinking deeply over them, not spending her time talking idly; third, her utter selflessness, considering God's claim on her life stood first, even though a sword should pierce her heart; lastly, though she didn't understand everything in her life, yet she remained faithful; this is the secret of being successful wives and mothers.

Announcement was made of another such service for women only to be held next Tuesday afternoon at 3 p. m. at Bigelow church, on the subject: Love, Marriage and Motherhood, to which all the women in the city, including girls over 15, are cordially invited.

The Poetic Bishop.

As Cheliasford's bishop reminisced of "once upon a time," his lordship could not well resist a tendency to rhyme. His South End congregation heard with unceasing amaze the following quaint absurd on penny-pious ways: "He dropped a penny in the plate, and meekly raised his eyes; one week's rent was duly paid for missions in the skies." His ministry at Redburn Green, the bishop did explain, found such odd questions intervene as "Who was wife to Cain?" The nun who made this ancient quest; the bishop said, had shown a vastly greater interest in Cain's wife than his own. If canon, vicar, curate, too, would only preach in rhyme, their congregations' heads would show they took their hearers with 'em.—London Chronicle.

Sunday School Lesson

"JESUS ON THE CROSS." MATTHEW 27:35-50

REV. W. E. WATSON

By the dividing of His garments, verse 35. When they nailed Him to the cross, they stripped Him of His garments, at least His upper garment, for by sin we were made naked; to our shame; and thus He purchased for us white raiment to cover us. If we be at any time stripped of our comforts for Christ, let us hear it patiently; He was stripped of His. Enemies may strip us of our clothes, but cannot strip us of our best comforts; cannot take from us the garments of praise. They now sat down and watched Him, verse 36. The chief priests were careful, no doubt, in setting this guard, lest the people, whom they still stood in awe of, should rise and rescue Him. But, providence so ordered it that those who were appointed to watch Him, thereby became unexceptionable witnesses for Him; having the opportunity to see and hear that which testified from that noble confession, (Y. 54). "Truly this was the Son of God."

By the title set up over His head, verse 37. It was usual, for the vindicating of public justice, and putting the greater shame upon malefactors that were executed, not only by a writing also before their heads, to notify what was the crime for which they suffered; so they set up over Christ's head His accusation written, to give public notice of the charge against Him: "This is Jesus, THE King of the Jews." This they designed for His reproach; but God so overruled that even His accusation rebounded to His honor.

By His companions with Him in suffering, verse 38. There were two thieves crucified with Him at the same time, in the same place, under the same guard; two highwaymen, or robbers upon the road, as the word properly signifies.

First, it was a reproach to Him that He was crucified with them. Though, while He lived, He was sup-arate from sinners, yet in their deaths they were not divided, but He was made to partake with the vilest malefactors in their plagues, as if He had been a partaker with them in their sin; for He was made sin for us, and took upon Him the likeness of sinful flesh.

Second, it was an additional reproach, that He was crucified in the midst, between them, as if He had been the worst of the three; for among three the middle is the place for the chief. Every circumstance was contrived to His dishonor, as if the great Saviour were of all others the greatest sinner.

The common people, that passed by, reviled Him, verse 39. His extreme misery and exemplary patience under it, did not mollify them, or make them to relent; but they who by their outcries brought Him to this, now think to justify themselves in it by their reproaches, as if they did well to condemn Him. (1). The persons that reviled Him; they that passed by, the travellers that went along the road, and it was a great road leading from Jerusalem to Gibson; they were possessed with prejudices against Him by the reports and clamors of the high priests' creatures. It is a hard thing and requires more application and resolution than is ordinarily met with, to keep up a good opinion of persons and things that are everywhere being run down, and spoken against. Every one is apt to say as the most say, and to throw a stone at that which is put into an ill name. (2) Of men not withstanding. They upbraided Him with His destroying of the temple. Though the Judges themselves were sensible that what He had said of that was misrepresented. (As appears Mark 14:59), yet they industriously spread it among the people, to bring an odium upon Him, that He had a design to destroy the temple; nothing would more intensify the people against Him.

They upbraided Him with His saying that He was the Son of God; if thou be so, say they, "Come down from the cross." Now they take the devil's words out of His mouth with which he tempted Him in the wilderness, (chapter 1:3-6), and renew the same assault: "If thou be the Son of God, forgetting He had proved it by the miracles He wrought, particularly His raising of the dead; and unwilling to wait for the complete proof of it by His own resurrection, to which He had so often referred Himself and them; which, if He had observed it, would have anticipated the offering of the cross. This comes of judging things by the present aspect of them, without a due remembrance of what is past and a patient expectation of what may further be predicted.

Two things the priests and elders upbraided Him with:

First, That He could not save Himself, verse 42. He had been before abused in His prophetic and kingly office, and now in His priestly office. First, they take it for granted that He could not save Himself, and therefore had not the power He pretended to, when really He would die to save us. They should have argued, "He saved others, therefore He could save Himself, and if He do not, it is for some good reason." But, secondly, they would insinuate, that because He did not now save Himself, therefore all His pretence to save others was but sham and delusion, and was never really done; though the truth of His miracles was demonstrated beyond contradiction. Thirdly, they upbraided Him with being the "King of Israel." They dreamed of the external pomp and power of the Messiah, and therefore thought the cross altogether disagreeable to the King of Israel, and inconsistent with that character. Many people could like the King of Israel well enough, if He would but come down from the cross, if they could have his kingdom without the tribulation through which they must enter into it. But the matter is settled; if no cross, then no Christ, no crown. Those that would reign with Him must be willing to suffer with Him, for Christ and His Cross are nailed together in this world. Fourthly, they challenged Him to come down from the cross. And what had become of us then, and the work of our redemption and salvation? If He had been provoked by these scoffs to come down from the cross, and so to have left His undertaking unfinished, we had been forever undone. But His unchangeable love and resolution set Him above, and fortified Him against this temptation, so that He did not fall, nor was discouraged. Fifthly, they promised, that if He would come down from the cross, they would believe Him. Let Him give them proof of His being the Messiah, and they will own Him to be so. When they had formerly demanded a sign, He told them that the sign He would give them should be, not His coming down from the cross, but, which was a greater instance of His power, His coming up from the grave, which they had not patience to wait two or three days for.

But, to promise ourselves that we would believe, if we had such and such means and motives of faith as we ourselves would prescribe when we do not improve what God has appointed, is not only a gross instance of the deceitfulness of our hearts, but the sorry refuge, or subterfuge rather, of an obstinate destroying infidelity.

(2) That God His Father, would not save Him; (verse 43). He trusted in God, that is, He pretended to do so; for He said, "I am the Son of God", those who call God Father, and themselves His children, thereby profess to put a confidence in Him. Psalm 9:10. To complete the reproach, the thieves also that were crucified with Him, were not only not reviled as He was, as if they had been saints compared with Him, but, though fellow-sufferers with Him, joined in with His prosecutors, and cast the same in His teeth; that is, one of them did, who said, "If thou be the Christ, save thyself and us." Luke 23:39. Interlude.

The manner how He breathed His last; (verse 50.) between the third and the sixth hour, that is, between nine and twelve o'clock, as we reckon. He was nailed to the cross, and soon after the ninth hour, that is, between three and four o'clock in the afternoon, He died. That was the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, and the time when the paschal lamb was killed, and Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us and offered Himself in the evening of the world a sacrifice to God, a sweet-smelling savour. It was at that time that the angel Gabriel delivered to Daniel that glorious prediction of the Messiah, Daniel 9:24-26. And some think that from that very time when Christ died, was just twenty weeks, that is, four hundred and ninety years, to an hour, as the departure of Israel out of Egypt was at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even the self-same day, Exodus 12:41. (1.) This was a sign, that, after all His pains and nature strong. The whole of His life was one of the first things that, with a panting breath and, faltering tongue, a few broken words, were hardly spoken, and before He expired, spoke like a man in his full strength, to show that His life was not forced from Him, but was freely delivered by Him into His Father's hands, as His own act and deed.

TWENTY FOUR YEARS AGO

OAK HILL

Twenty four members were taken into full membership in the United Brethren church Tuesday night. They are: Harrison Burnside, Alva Leslie, James Kisor, Eunice Williams, Clarence Ward, Elizabeth McGowan, Clarence Colby, Mason, Seal, David Williams, Mrs. George Sharp, Minnie Sharp, William Angle, Andrew Sharp, Truman Davis, Joe Addis, Elizabeth Hill, Vera Cower, Ross Leslie, Margaret Colby, Mable Hale, Mrs. Ed Cawcra, Mrs. Jenkin Shuff and Mrs. James Kisor.

Children Christened
The two small children of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Dalton, namely John Lloyd and Margaret Marie, were christened at the family home by Rev. J. E. Dillert, Tuesday at 6:30 p. m. The little girl was held in the arms of her Foster grandmother Mrs. Nancy Lloyd, whose 84th birthday anniversary occurred on this day.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Shuckelore was the scene of a delightful little affair last Friday, when they celebrated in honor of their children's birthday anniversary. Neville the eldest son, attained his 10th year on March 9, Elizabeth was 6 on March 11 and the baby, Margaret, was 3 on the eleventh, so a joint celebration was had. The table was prettily decorated and a large birthday cake added the finishing touch. Invited guests included Mr. and Mrs. Orson Henson and two children Ivan and Martha and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Herbert.

Church Being Enlarged
The work of remodeling the M. E. church, was begun Wednesday morning. Don Faulkner is doing the work. When finished, this will be one of the prettiest and most home-like churches in town. Rev. J. E. Dillert is the pastor. James, eleven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Scott is very ill with pneumonia.

Master Sherrard Johnson, one of the bright little sons of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Johnson, of Second street, celebrated his eighth birthday anniversary.

A. W. Ackerman went to Ironton to buy a couple carloads of lumber for use in his planing mill.

Sam B. Timmonds is doing considerable work on Athletic park getting it ready for the coming base ball season.

LODGES

Delta Camp Initiates

At the weekly meeting of Delta Camp, Royal Neighbors of America, Thursday night in Ben Hur hall, one candidate, Mrs. Mary Birdwell, was initiated. Four applications from Elizabeth Seymour, Bessie McNamee, Lucile Phillips and Clara A. Fisk were received and favorably acted upon. Plans were also discussed for a social meeting to be held after repairs are made to the meeting place.

Mrs. Kate Loft is delegate from Delta Camp to the state convention being held at Springfield. She will report next Thursday night.

Sons of Veterans To Meet

Tonight in the basement of the public library, the Vespera Camp, Sons of Veterans, will meet in regular session, at which time the newly organized degree team will make its first appearance. The banquet committee will serve a banquet at the close of this meeting. The committee includes Adam Paul, Hartzell Evans and Gilbert F. Dodds.

Just Plain Bitro-Phosphate If Nervous and Run Down

"Neurasthenia is active exhaustion," says Dr. Frederic S. Kott, author of medical text books, and is caused by worry, overwork, emotional excitement and excessive of various kinds. To restore to complete health, the men and women whose nervous energy is undermined, a pure organic phosphate, known to Fisher & Spedding Pharmacy and all leading druggists as Bitro-Phosphate, must be taken freely with meals until the nerve and brain cells are revitalized with this natural element. It is nerve-wrecked people's one hope for a happy, useful future.

Eagles Receive New Member
One candidate, John Hoppert, was shown through the mysteries of the lodge at the weekly meeting of the Eagles last night. Three petitions for membership were received and two were favorably acted upon. The dance committee reported good attendance at the Wednesday night dances.

Progressive Camp Represented

Mrs. Sibbie Turner of New Boston is the delegate representing Progressive Camp, Royal Neighbors, at the state convention of the lodge being held at Springfield. Mrs. Turner will make her report of the big meeting next Tuesday night.

Held First Initiation

The members of Ellrose Lodge, Pythian Sisters, held a very enthusiastic and largely attended meeting last night when the first initiation of the order was held. The degree team conferred the work on a class of seven, including Mrs. Margaret Hoerl, Mrs. Anna Hubert, Mrs. Margaret Paulitz, Mrs. Era Smith, Mrs. Laura Thirkettle, George Thirkettle and H. H. Smith. Oscar Rosebrock was admitted on transfer from Springfield. The degree team was highly complimented on its first work. The members presented a purse to Mrs. Oscar Rosebrock, who is to leave soon for Springfield.

The local lodge of Pythian Sisters was organized through the untiring efforts of Mrs. Rosebrock, and the members showed their appreciation of her work by presenting her with the gift.

C. O. F. To Take Communion

DEFENSE IN MATEWAN TRIAL SCORES ATTORNEYS OF STATE; SAYS NONE REPRESENTS PUBLIC

WILLIAMSON, W. Va., March 18.—In addressing the jury that will attempt to decide the guilt or innocence of sixteen residents of Matewan, charged with responsibility for the death of Albert C. Felts, a private detective, last May, Harold W. Houston, attorney for the defense, declared that not one of the lawyers conducting the prosecution can say he "represents" the common wealth of West Virginia. "It is given that Mingo county should be governed by the tax payers and not by a private detective agency," he cried, and charged that "P. L. Felt, general manager of the Baldwin-Felts Detective Agency and a brother of the slain operative, 'feeds the attorneys.' He added that 'eventually the money comes from the pockets of Mingo county miners.'"

"What crime had these men committed to have armed non-residents turned in on them?" he asked, answering his own question by saying: "Because the crime they committed, calling down the power of the coal operators upon them, was joining the miners' union."

Houston read a letter admitted in evidence and which it was testified was taken from the body of Albert C. Felts. It referred to an attempt that was to be made to get Sid Hatfield, Matewan police chief, and one of the defendants, into the agency's employ.

"They wanted to make Sid Hatfield a traitor," shouted the attorney. "They wanted to buy him like they did Isaac Brewer and C. E. Lively. If Hatfield could have been bought he would have been in the place of Brewer and Lively today. But he couldn't be bought and today stands trial for his life. I am proud to know that Matewan elects such un-

Case Ready For The Jury

CLEVELAND, O., March 18.—Closing arguments in the first degree murder trial of Mrs. Maud Miller, charged with fatally shooting her husband, Peter J. Miller, were expected to be completed this afternoon and the case given the jury of one woman and eleven men late today.

Seven verdicts are possible—first degree, carrying the death penalty; first degree with mercy and second degree, carrying life imprisonment; manslaughter, 1 to 20 years imprisonment; assault and battery, and assault with a dangerous weapon, and acquittal.

Mrs. Miller has been in jail since the shooting, January 20.

COURT HOUSE

The divorce suit of Edna E. Webb, 640 Seventh street, against Louis R. Webb, now said to be living at Washington, D. C., was partially heard by Judge Thomas in Common Pleas court Friday and then continued for further evidence.

The plaintiff alleged neglect and cruelty and she told the court that Webb failed and refused to support her and her child while she lived with him and she declared he beat and abused her. They were married Aug. 19, 1917.

The wife was represented by Attorney A. R. Campbell.

The marital bliss of Oscar Hoover and Nellie Hoover was brief according to his story related to Judge Thomas during the hearing of his suit for divorce in Common Pleas court Friday when he said that the defendant left him three days after their marriage on December 29, 1919, on the pretense of visiting her mother at New Boston and he asserted he had since waited for her to come back. He further accused her of associating with other men for immoral purposes.

The case was continued to give the plaintiff an opportunity to present additional testimony in support of his petition and as to his own character, Attorney A. R. Campbell for plaintiff.

Holland Files Answer

Answering the alimony suit of Lulu Holland, 841 Sixth street, John Holland denies her charges and for cross petition alleges that at the time of the marriage on August 31, 1920, the plaintiff was, and has ever since been physically incapable of consummating the marriage and he claims that the dispositions of both are such that marital relationship will never exist between them.

Holland, who is a traveling drug salesman employed by a local concern, asks through Attorney Sam M. Johnson that the petition be dismissed and that he be given a divorce.

Krueger Seeks Divorce

Alleging cruelty and declaring that she often struck him, slid various articles of household furniture at him and even threatened to kill him by means of poison, Otto Krueger, trucker employed at the N. & W. freight depot, seeks a divorce from Martha Krueger, of Jackson street, in an action instituted in Common Pleas court Friday. They were married Jan. 13, 1921. The plaintiff sued through Attorneys E. G. Miller, S. A. Skelton, and Sherrard Johnson.

Carter Sees Old Cronies

Former Deputy Sheriff Elza Carter came in from his Jefferson township farm Friday and while in town called on old cronies at the Court House and jail.

ing disposed of forty cases.

The latest ones are James Owens, aged 14 and Emory Barlow, 17, who were arrested for stealing brass from cars on the railroad switches, and damaging seventy-five cars. They have been taken to Lancaster Reform School.

Marie Hughes, who was on parole from Delaware Girls' Industrial School was returned on Tuesday. She is only fourteen years of age. Three young men of this city were fined $5 and costs each for contributing to delinquency, and a married man paid $25 for making suggestive remarks to her presence. Four of the seventh children, near Jisco, were sent to the Xenia Home, and one child was put in the care of relatives in Portsmouth.

Mothers' Club

Mrs. William Kuhner was the hostess to the Mothers' Club on Tuesday afternoon. The hostess gave the paper on "The Lock-Step in Modern Education as Opposed to Methods Intended to Develop the Individual Child," followed by a reading by Mrs. William Redenok on "The Modern Mother." After a spirited discussion on the paper, Mrs. Kuhner served a delicious two course lunch to the fourteen members present. Three new members were welcomed that day, Mrs. Ivor Jones, Mrs. Harrison Skumate and

Physicians' Warning

We are constantly warned against the danger of allowing colds to develop. May's Pine Needle Balm applied to the nose at the first suggestion of a cold will check it almost immediately. This stimulating pine fragrance is so soothing and healing that catarrh and colds of the head, nose and throat clear quickly when it is used. Keep up your health by always having on hand a tube of May's Pine Needle Balm and apply freely. This refreshing pine forest essence clears the nasal passages and promotes normal breathing. Sold in two sizes—30c and 60c tubes. Free trial by writing George H. May, 213 W. Austin Ave., Chicago. May's Pine Needle Balm is for sale by Flood and Blake and druggists everywhere. Fisher & Steigh—Adv.

Mrs. James Darling. At the next meeting in two weeks with Mrs. David Armstrong two more members will be received, Mrs. Irl Stout and Mrs. Irl Peters. Mrs. Neph Spangler and Mrs. Paul Adams were guests on this occasion.

Mrs. George Williams was hostess to a party of friends on Wednesday evening, with three tables of five hundred. The guests were Mesdames Neill Schellenger, Fred Baesman, Edwin Churchill, Charles Van Fossen, Arthur Davis, Frank Patton, A. L. Bloom, Pat Duncan and Misses Laura Jorgan and Audrey Lamb. Rosalyn Cohen and Kate Portsch. The evening closed with excellent refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Moody of Wooster and Mrs. Edith Snyder of Columbus came to Jackson this week to attend the funeral of the late John Adams, which will take place Friday afternoon at two o'clock. Mrs. Studer recently underwent an operation for striae and is very much improved in health.

Curfew In Jackson.
The probate court is seeking to establish a curfew ordinance in Jackson and the matter will be presented at the meeting of the council next Tuesday evening. There is a plan to advance the curfew for all municipalities in Jackson county. It was expected that Wellington would put their ordinance into effect this Thursday evening. The judge hopes to have Jackson and Canton follow their example very soon.

School Yard Clean-Up

As announced some time ago, the Coateson High School arranged for its cleaning and grading of the yard on Friday this week. The men throughout the township and the high school boys are to bring teams, wagons and the necessary tools, haul the dirt and do the grading, preparatory for the visit of Prof. Crankshaw who will be at their next meeting and lecture on landscape gardening and help plan the planting of shrubs and trees. The ladies of Coateson will serve the dinner at the High School building.

Early-Day Peddler

An important merchant of centuries ago was the man who did your buying for you. In those days there were no mail-order houses nor was there such a thing as running into town to do your shopping. So there was evolved a professional shopper who made it his business to buy what you needed. He was known as a packer, packer, or pale-man, and from these words the modern names resembling them have sprung.

Firm To Revamp Building

Architects Devoss and Doudleau have completed plans for the revamping of the building now occupied by The Marting Bros. company and the taking over the building occupied by the United Woven company. An entire new front is to be put in and the buildings will be made five story instead of three. This progressive firm will have a modern business block when the extensive improvements are completed. Work on them will not be started for some time as J. H. Goodman, owner of the United Woven company has a two year lease on his present quarters. The building was formerly owned by Herman Miller of Sixth street.

A Sure Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

DEATH CLAIMS DR. S. P. FETTER

As a numbing shock, came the news to the many Portsmouth friends of Dr. Samuel P. Fetter, of Ashland, Ky., Friday, that death had cut short his useful and honorable career, the end coming at his residence on Bath Avenue, Ashland, at noon Friday.

Ever since his protracted illness while a resident of Portsmouth, six years ago, Dr. Fetter's health had been frail, and he had to take the greatest care of himself. Two months ago, while in New York City, at the bedside of Mrs. Fetter, who had undergone an operation, Dr. Fetter contracted a cold, to which he was susceptible, and became seriously ill. He was treated in a New York hospital and so far recovered as to be able to return to his home in Ashland, arriving last Sunday afternoon. However, he contracted another cold on the train and was compelled to take to his bed. Tuesday his condition became alarming, and specialists were called into consultation. Their skill was unavailing, and Wednesday night he lapsed into unconsciousness, remaining in that state until the end came at twelve o'clock Friday.

Mrs. Fetter, her two children, Mr. John C. Mayo, and Miss Margaret Mayo, her mother, Mrs. Meeks, and Dr. Fetter's mother, Mrs. Charles Fetter, and brother Carl Fetter, were in loving attendance at his bedside. They were informed Thursday night by physicians that there was no hope and that the end was only a question of hours.

Dr. Fetter's death is deeply mourned by hundreds of Portsmouth friends and admirers, who feel a great personal loss. He was located here for about eight years, practicing his profession, and had a wide circle of friends. He was a man of rare accomplishments, gifted of mind and courtesy of manner, kind, thoughtful and considerate. He endeavored himself to his patients and his friends alike, and news that death had taken him in the prime of life, comes as a tremendous shock.

Dr. Fetter was the son of the Reverend and Mrs. Charles Fetter, his father being a clergyman of the Episcopal church, and he was born in North Carolina. After attending college, he attended the Cincinnati Medical College, from which he graduated in 1905. Shortly thereafter Dr. Fetter was appointed as an assistant physician at the Ohio Hospital for Epileptics, Gallipolis, Ohio, serving in that capacity for four years. He was extremely successful in handling difficult cases at the institution, his diplomatic and careful methods winning the confidence of his patients, where others failed. It was with the greatest regret that his resignation was accepted when he decided to engage in private practice, having chosen Portsmouth as the most promising point to locate. Significant of the esteem in which he was held by those in charge of Gallipolis institution, is the fact that on two separate occasions, Dr. Fetter was offered the superintendent's job, when it became vacant. He declined as he was building up a splendid practice and preferred private life.

In the early part of 1915 Dr. Fetter contracted a severe case of diphtheria, complications from which affected his kidneys. For many days he lay unconscious, hovering between life and death, and it was not thought he had a chance for recovery. However, he finally rallied, thanks to a sound constitution, and slowly came back to moderately good health. In December, 1915, Dr. Fetter went to Miami, Florida, to spend the winter, his health not being such that he could stand the rigorous and changeable climate in this section. While at Miami, Dr. Fetter became acquainted with Mrs. Alice Mayo, a charming Kentucky lady, who was also there recuperating. Their friendship ripened into love, and they were united in marriage at Mrs. Fetter's home, Paintsville, Ky., on September 23rd, 1916. The marriage was a most happy one, marred only by the shadow of death that constantly hung over the household.

Two years ago Dr. and Mrs. Fetter moved to Ashland, Ky., where they built a beautiful home on Bath Avenue. Dr. Fetter was a member of the Episcopal church, and while in Portsmouth was a member of the vestry of All Saints' Episcopal church. He was also a member of the Portsmouth Board of Health. In Ashland he entered actively into the promotion of civic interests of the city, taking the lead in many projects for the building up of the city. He was president of the Chamber of Commerce in Ashland. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

OFFICERS FIRE AT FLEEING SOLDIER

Getting a tip at 3 o'clock this afternoon that Ollie Cooper, a soldier, was in a house near the Five Mile Church on the Scioto Trail, Officers Brahan and Schroeder called there to arrest him. He saw the officers approaching and escaped to the hills back of the trail near the Five Mile Church.

The officers fired several shots at Cooper, who they say is wanted in Kentucky on a white slavery charge. At 3:15 the officers returned to the city to secure a police dog to put on the trail of Cooper.

REYNOLDS SHOT

George Reynolds, a colored citizen of Ironton was removed to the Deaconess hospital in that city last night with a bullet lodged in his abdomen. He refuses to say how he received the bullet wound and the police are investigating.

No Developments Says Mr. York

Raymond D. York, vice-president and general manager of The Portsmouth Street Railroad and Light Company, stated Friday there were no new developments in respect to the street car fare increase situation and said that so far as he knew the hearing on the company's application to abandon its service will come up before the State Public Utility Commission next Tuesday, as scheduled.

START WORK ON NEW FILLING STATION

Work has already been started on the new oil and gasoline filling station The Portsmouth Oil Company will build at Sixth and Gay streets on the site of the old Holy Redeemer school. Contracts were awarded Thursday to the following local contractors, excavating and brick work, George Suter; carpenter work, Fred Warner; plumbing, Thomas Ashpaw; electrical, Taylor and Vogt. Mr. Suter started a force of men to work Friday morning. Three big steel tanks are already on the ground and will be placed nine feet under ground. The new station will be of brick and stucco and the Company intends to have it a thing of beauty embodying all the latest features in architecture.

Shopmen Returning To Work

A number of additional employees of Work is picking up along the various divisions of the road, officials declared shops in East Portsmouth Friday.

Lewis After Job Of Watchman

John Lewis, a former policeman, is making an effort to have a number of bills in the East End sign a petition for a night policeman. If he gets a sufficient number he will take the job. The merchants want to guard themselves against robberies.

Carl Wanderer Must Pay Death Penalty

CHICAGO, Mar. 18.—Carl Wanderer today was found guilty by a jury of the murder of the ragged stranger shot to death in the alleged mock hold-up, and the penalty fixed at death.

Granted A Divorce

On the ground of cruelty Ruth Monk 618 Ninth street, was granted a decree by Judge Thomas in Common Pleas court Friday, divorcing her from herself Monk, well known local plumber. The defendant was present in court but he did not contest her application for a divorce and the parties settled their property rights out of court.

Attorney Theo. H. Funk appeared for the wife and Attorney C. M. Searl represented Monk.

Seriously Ill

Henry Bassler, a well known mechanic is in a serious condition at his home on Fourth street. He has been ill several months.

Jesuits Brought Sugar Cane.

Sugar cane was introduced into Louisiana from Santo Domingo by the Jesuits in 1751. The first refined sugar was made by Antonio Mendez in 1702, but the first refined sugar on a commercial scale was made in 1794 by Etienne De Bore. The plantations of these two planters now form a part of the city of New Orleans.

Road In Bad Shape

Messrs. Frank Stanton and "Slim" Sullivan have returned from a motor trip to Ironton. They say that the road between Franklin Furnace and Hanging Rock is in a frightful condition and sound a warning to all motorists driving in that direction.

It Will Grow.

Democracy can never be extended by force, as you would find a net over a flock of birds; but give it a chance and it will grow, as a tree grows, by sending down its roots into the heart of humanity and lifting its top toward the light and spreading its arms wider and wider until all the persecuted flocks of heaven find refuge beneath its protecting shade.—Henry Van Dyke.

Which Is the Highest Mountain?

It is generally thought Mount Everest, with its 29,400 feet, is the world's highest peak; but some authorities assert that Teram Kangri, Kara Korams, Cashmere, has an altitude of nearly 30,000 feet.

CAMERA SAYS BUSINESS IS GOOD IN NEW ENGLAND

Crowd of shoppers on Tremont street in Boston.

The pessimistic merchant may cheer up a bit if he will study this photograph which was taken last week in Boston. If the camera does not lie, it means that business is pretty brisk in New England, for this is a group of shoppers on Tremont street.

It does not look much like "depression," does it? Many experts now believe the industrial crisis is past.

Called To Hamden

W. E. Tripp, prominent local business man, hurried to Hamden Friday afternoon by automobile in response to a message advising that his aged mother had suddenly taken ill. He was told that her condition was extremely critical.

START WORK ON NEW "ROOF GARDEN"

Charles Conklin started work Friday on the "roof garden" the Mary Louis Candy Company will open shortly on the second floor of their building. It is to be furnished in an attractive manner and will be run in conjunction with the new tea and dance room the firm is building on the second floor.

Was Necessary.

Judging from frequent mentions in lunchrooms and street cars of persons who have "got wise," the American standard of intelligence must be rapidly rising.—Boston Transcript.

For Antiquarians to Solve. In discussing the origin of names from occupations an interesting point crops up. A man might have been a cooper and his son a weaver, why was the family known as coopers and not weavers? Just at what point did the appellation crystallize into a name? Careful study has failed to clear up this point.

Next Show On April 4

The Portsmouth Athletic Club announced that the next boxing show would be held in the Auditorium on Monday, April 4. It is possible that Webb Colley, who defeated Billy Atlas will be one of the principals in the main go of ten rounds.

Argentina Not a Paradise.

The distribution of rain seems to be poorly managed in the Argentine; if the country is not suffering from drought, it is apt to be complaining of floods, or, in the warmer and more fertile north, of the locusts, which sometimes sweep from the wilderness of the Chaco in such clouds that the project has seriously been considered of erecting an enormous net, supported, perhaps, by balloons, against them.—Harry A. Franck in Century Magazine.

To Soften Skins.

There are two simple ways of softening leather and raw skins. One is to rub in thoroughly neat's-foot oil. The other is to dissolve three ounces of alum, seven ounces of salt and one and one-half ounces saleratus in sufficient hot rain water to saturate the skin. When cool enough not to scald the hands soak the skin in it for 12 hours; wring out and hang up to dry. When dry repeat this operation two or three times until the skin is sufficiently soft.

BOY STOWAWAYS' CHAINED TO DECK OF OCEAN VESSEL
Due to the recent ruling of the state department, Jon Jacobson, fifteen-year-old stowaway, may have to spend five years aboard the ocean steamer Eldena, now docked at New York. He boarded the boat at Bizerta, Tunis. The ship's captain does not plan to return to Tunis. Under the law the boy cannot enter the U. S. until he is at least fifteen years old. As the captain faces a penalty if the stowaway escapes the captain keeps the lad chained to the ship's rail.

OBITUARY
Mrs. Elizabeth Kessler
Death in sudden form claimed one of Portsmouth's life-long residents about ten o'clock Thursday night when the final summons came to Mrs. Elizabeth Kessler at her home, 700 1-2 Chillicothe street. Death was caused by hardening of arteries, after an illness of over a year. Mrs. Kessler had not been complaining much the last week and was able to be out and about Tuesday and Wednesday. She was in her favorite chair when stricken last night. She fell over into the arms of her daughter, Miss Flora, as the end came.
Mrs. Elizabeth Kessler was born on Seventh street, just west of Washington, in 1841, being 79 years of age at the time of death. All her life she spent within two squares of where she was born, and reared. She was a daughter of the late Kasper and Margaret Kaps, and the widow of Leopold Kessler, who died many years ago. He was for years engaged in business on Front street west of Market.
Surviving are the daughter, Miss Flora, at home; two daughters and two sons, in Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. Alice Fay, Mrs. Edward Wolke, and John and Edward Kessler. She also leaves a half sister, Mrs. Augusta Schirman.
Mrs. Kessler was a member of St. Mary's church for many years.
The funeral services will be held probably Monday, definite arrangements to be made on the arrival of relatives from Brooklyn.

NOTICE

Before you reach a decision either for or against the Shale Oil Industry, investigate it. Come in and see our demonstration and talk it over. It is to your advantage.

The Duck Run Oil &amp; Refining Co.

SHALE OIL SUPERIOR TO WELL PETROLEUM

Says J. B. Jones, of the Petroleum Engineering Co. of Kansas City, in speaking of the quality of the refined products of shale oil, before the American Mining Congress at St. Louis, Mo. Shale oils have been tested by many laboratories and the "Bureau of Standards" in Washington, and their records on these oils for friction and lubricating qualities are superior to the same record of oils made from petroleum, i. e., oils with the same fire flash and viscosity tests. The lubricating oils as it comes from the still without treatment, gives 60 per cent of the crude oil into a lubricating stock or an oil suitable for all kinds of lubricating purposes. Shale oil will produce a beautiful spindle oil, light or heavy motor oils and greases equal to the best petroleum and, so far as our records show, superior to the best petroleum oils for lubricating oils.

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS NEW YORK STOCKS CLOSING PRICES

NEW YORK, Mar. 18.—The trend of prices at the active opening of today's stock market was again downward. Stocks, oils and tobaccos showed initial losses extending from large fractions to a point. Pennsylvania made a new low for a long period of years at 35. Tobaccos were weakest of the specialties, falling 1 to 2 1/2 points. Studebaker, American Woolen and Beet Sugar also averaged 1 point declines. The reaction assumed wider dimensions within the first half hour. Mexican Petroleum, Royal Dutch and the high class rails, especially transcontinentals, ending 1 to 2 points.

Oils, tobaccos and rails continued to lose ground during the morning. Motors and coppers also sagging. Declines ranged from 1 to 3 1/2 points in Mexican Petroleum, General Asphalt, Crucible, Vanadium, Tobacco Products, American Tobacco, and Retail Stores. A loss of 2 1/2 points by Canadian Pacific was attributed in part to foreign selling. Union Pacific, Northern Pacific, Reading, New York Central, St. Paul common and preferred, Chesapeake and Ohio and Baltimore and Ohio forfeited 1 to 1 1/2 points. The few features of comparative strength comprised Atlantic Gulf, Hide & Leather preferred, Endicott-Johnson and Pierce Arrow. Exchange on London and continental Europe was firm and call money renewed into next week at 7 per cent.

Apart from rails and a few specialties, average prices in the stock market today were variably higher after an early period of reaction. Sales approximated 750,000 shares.

The closing was strong.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Mar. 18.—Reported crop damage by green bugs in Kansas had a noticeable, though transient, bullish influence today on the wheat market here. New York interests were said to have led the buying. Commission houses became active sellers on the advance, however, and the market underwent a decided reaction. Opening prices which ranged from 1/4c off to

1/4c advance, with March 1.57 and May

1.48 to 1.48 1/2, were followed by a slight general sag and then by a rise to well above yesterday's finish, with a subsequent decline lower than before.

Corn reflected the changes in wheat.

After opening 1/4c lower to a shade advance, including May at 68 1/2 to 68 3/4

the market held within a narrow range.

The close was weak, 1/4c to 1/2c @

1/2c net lower, with May 67 1/2 to 67 3/4.

Oats were governed by the action of other cereals, starting unchanged to

1/4c higher with May 42 1/2 to 42 3/4 and later weakening somewhat.

Export demand for hard strengthened provisions and so too did an upturn

in the price of hogs.

The close was heavy, 2 1/4 to 3 1/2c net lower, with March 1.54 1/2 to 1.54 3/4 and

May 1.45 to 1.45 1/2.

with larceny in connection with the alleged theft of a guitar valued at $50

from Dudley Marchant, 2806 Gallia

Street, was called for trial in Municipal court Friday Judge Johnson granted a continuance until next Wednesday in order to give the prosecution an opportunity to bring its witnesses into court.

The complaint alleges that the musical instrument was purloined by the accused at the fronton depot on the night of Sept. 10, 1920, while the complainant was asleep.

Young George is now under bond on a charge of forging a check for $120 on the Security Bank a week ago in the name of W. B. Bolton, N. &amp; W. Ma-chist, who rooms at the home of A.

W. Sheets, near Ninth and Waller

Now Playing the Eastland Theatre, Frisella Dean and Lon Chaney in "Outside the Law," the Most Thrilling Melodrama Ever Screened. Only Two More Nights Left to See It—Tonight and Tomorrow. Matinee Tomorrow.

PROGRAM
A—Overture, "Blue Jackets" Eastland augmented orchestra.
B—Universal presents Frisella Dean and Lon Chaney in "Outside the Law," a two reel comedy.
C—The Hallmark Boys in "Some Chumps," a two reel comedy.
D—The crook dramas of recent years that are really great, may be counted upon the fingers of one hand or named with one breath. But a place among them is earned by the newest story of the underworld. It is "Outside the Law," a film feature written and produced by Tod Browning, in which Frisella Dean is starring on the screen of the Eastland Theatre tonight.
E—The struggle of crooks to go straight is an old theme—but the struggle of Silky Moll and Dapper Bill Ballard to live their own lives, is a part, but not the theme, of Tod Browning's picture. It is merely the dramatic skeleton that sustains the comedy flesh of human heart drama in which Miss Dean and Lon Chaney and Wheeler Oakman are the principals.
F—The real theme runs through the story like the undercurrent of a mysterious river. It is the passion of an old Chinese philosopher for his ideals—principles of right and wrong, that are fundamental and not sections and paragraphs from a quibbling statute book. In his Oriental devotion to what is right, E. A. Warren shows the Chinese dealing a justice "outside the law."

Heat of Red Peppers Stops Rheumatic Pain

The penetrating heat of "Red Pepper Rub" will bring almost instant relief from the pains of rheumatism, pleurisy, colds, lumbago, neuritis, backache, strains, sprains, sore muscles and stiff, aching joints.
Penetrating heat immediately frees the blood circulation that carries off the congestion and pain is gone.
Nothing has such concentrated penetrating heat as red peppers. The moment you apply Red Pepper Rub you feel the tingling heat. In three minutes it warms the congested spot through and through.
When you are suffering so you can hardly get around, just get a jar of Howies Red Pepper Rub, made from red peppers. It costs little at any drug store. The quickest relief known awaits you. Use it always for colds in chest.

SUNSET

JONES

At The Exhibit Theatre For Two Nights, Starting Tonight, Father Jones in All Star Cast in "Sunset Jones," An Epic of the Great West—Thrills and Action Galore.
The Exhibit Theatre will show a humdinger the remainder of this week, according to advance reports, "Sunset Jones," which has been playing to crowds in first run houses all over the country. It is from an epic novel and is said to portray Western life as it has never before been presented on the screen.
While there is the quick action and vivid scenes of the typical Western, there is in this drama a unique element of human emotion and an underlying romance which "gets" the audience. It is more than mere excitement, for the mighty pull between love and duty as it is handled by Charles Chary, makes a lasting impression.
Gene Rich, whose phenomenal rise to stardom has recently been featured in magazines and papers throughout the country, has a prominent role and adds greatly to the attraction. James Gordon and Kathleen O'Connor are also well-known names which appear in this cast.
For a big evening's entertainment, one that the whole family can enjoy, you can't miss it at the Exhibit Theatre.

Correct Hosiery In The Latest Spring Styles

Only the right stockings with the right shoes achieve the right effect. Now, since instead of "her feet beneath her petticoat, like little mice stole in and out," her feet are always conspicuously in view, one of the most important details of a woman's costume is stockings. And we have heeded the call and provided stocks to meet the demand. From the plain silken hose to the imported elaborate affairs of beads and lace that decorate the insteps giving way to long stripes of valen- ciennes insertions that run from heel to toe. They're all here.

Imported Hosiery That Complies With The Exact Styles Now Worn By Paris

STEEL BEADED CLOCKED HOSE in black only, full fashioned, extra fine quality silk $5.00
HAND WORKED Grey Paris Clocked Hose, full fashioned, the new shade to match the suede slippers, fine quality $5.00
BLACK SILK CLOCKED HOSE, extra fine, quality black silk hose, with fancy clockings of henna, green, white, also plain black $5.00

Beaded And Lace Motifs

Up to the minute styles now being worn by Paris. Motifs of brilliant beads made into flower effects, lace motifs of butterflies and birds, lace strings styles on the same order as lacing up your shoe. Hand made clockings, etc. In colors of black, white, pearl grey.

Priced at $8.50, $10.00, $10.50, $11.00, $12.00.

SLATED TO BECOME N. Y. POSTMASTER

E. M. Morgan.

E. M. Morgan, who was postmaster of New York city under Roosevelt and Taft and for a time under Wilson, is slated to return to that post under the Harding administration. It is reported in New York. Thomas G. Patten is the present postmaster there.

Use of Peat as Fuel. Machines for handling peat have been in use in Europe for many years, though only recently have they approached any great degree of commercial success. Development of the industry in some of the European countries has been aided by government appropriations and experimental work. In Sweden, particularly, considerable progress has been made. Powdered peat has been burned successfully as locomotive fuel there, comparing favorably with coal, and the government has erected several large peat-powder plants. Preparation of peat for fuel has been developed in Canada to some extent. From 15,000,000 to 20,000,000 tons of peat fuel are used annually in European countries, according to the United States bureau of mines. Fort Dearborn Independent.

Allies Hold Heart Of German Industrial Center

Of the three cities on the east bank of the Rhine now occupied by French troops, Düsseldorf is the largest and from the tourist's viewpoint the most important. But it is far out-ranked in a commercial and industrial way by Ruhrort and Duisburg, which are two of the busiest manufacturing towns in Germany.

Düsseldorf with its population of over 250,000 was once before in the last years of the Napoleonic empire, occupied by French troops, at that time for seven years. In 1815, however, it was turned over to Prussia. There are few better known art centers in Germany than Düsseldorf.

Although Düsseldorf has large iron and steel works, it is far out-classed as a manufacturing center by Duisburg and Ruhrort, which are practically one community, fifteen miles to the north. The latter town is at the junction of the Rhine and the Rhine, while the former, a mile to the south, is connected with both rivers by a canal. This section is the center of the manufacturing district of the Rhine and besides an extensive commerce in coal, iron and steel, carries on an enormous traffic in the food stuffs and supplies needed in the Ruhr district. Ruhrort has, moreover, the largest river harbor in all Europe.

THE SUNLIT WAY

By AGNES BROGAN

(Copyright 1921, Western Newspaper Union.)
Jasmine rode every morning, down the sunlit way. The park surrounded her big shabby home was gloomy. It's wealth of trees. The house was gloomy, too; so in her hour of recreation, Jasmine chose the sunlit way.

Jasmine, seated on her white horse, Bonnie, loved to dream, at the water's edge, of that other world so far away and yet near, where other young people laughed and talked, and sang together.

Since her mother's death, when she had been too young to remember, the girl had known little companionship save that of Ursula, the housekeeper and James Rhodes, her father, James Rhodes, aged prematurely by disappointment and sorrow, was a severe man.

The one friend who continued to bear with his humors was John Westwood, of Westwood place, next door.

And as James Rhodes, in his broken hearted isolation—for he had never ceased to mourn his wife's loss—grew poorer, John Westwood, energetic and successful in business, grew ever richer.

Now, the one stubborn desire of the old thwarted man was to make that wealth his daughter's, through her marriage to his friend.

John Westwood admired Jasmine very much; he loved her, he said, and would make her happy. So Jasmine, grievously disturbed, rode every morning down the sunlit way, trying to think out an escape from the impending fate. The girl in absorbing tenderness for her father, could not bear to deny his heart's one desire, and yet—

A stranger sat at the end of the sunlit road one day, a young and idle stranger, with arms clasped behind his head against the tree on which he leaned, and brown hair blown by the breeze from his high, white forehead.

As the young man's frank blue eyes came back from their survey of the river, they rested upon Jasmine—seated there on her horse in a kind of joyous wonder.

"You?" asked the young man, dreamily, "who are you?"

And also suitably wondering, the girl replied, "I am Jasmine."

The stranger nodded.

"Of course," he said, "I might know that you would be Jasmine—when you came, a white flower."

Strangely acquiescent, she allowed him to take the bridle from her hand and lead her to a seat on the grass at his side.

"You come from the old house, Jasmine?" the young man asked.

"You see, I know that there are but two houses, and John Westwood lives in the other."

"Yes," she answered slowly, "from the old house."

"And you are?" he hesitated over his question.

Then Jasmine smiled.

"I am," she told her questioner, "occupied there as a companion."

She was away before the stranger could detain her, flying on Bonnie's back, up the sunlit road. In the somber silence of the park trees, the girl calmed, and her eyes grew wild.

Had it not all been a dream? Yet she went again, and still again, and every coming found him waiting. Then, finally Jasmine told herself that the meetings must end. It was the white horse who carried her there.

"I did not mean to come," she told the young man, decidedly. "Bonnie brought me."

"And your heart led Bonnie," he answered laughing softly, in confident assurance.

"But now that I have come," the girl went on, "I shall stay only to confess my debt, and then—good-by. I am Jasmine Rhodes, and I am to marry John Westwood."

"You!" gasped the young man, "to marry my crumbled old uncle? You, my little white flower?"

"Your uncle," she faltered confusedly.

The lover impatiently nodded.

"I came down to visit my uncle," he said. "He is putting me through college. Through all his crustiness, my uncle has an affection for me. But if you think that I shall let you marry him—"

Young John Westwood broke off abruptly.

"There is only one way to straighten it all," he said, "and we must hurry. My roadster will carry us quicker than Bonnie. It's on the river road. First, we will have to get a license. Then you shall come back here as my wife. Wealth can mean nothing to you as compared with love. Come, dear heart."

But Jasmine lingered.

"Some day," she said, "I will go with you. But first, I must be honest with both my father and his friend."

From behind the shelter of a tree came suddenly old John Westwood. "I would advise you, my dear," he said quietly, "to obey now the dictate of your heart. This had a good lad, and true love is more than money. I, myself, shall see your father, and after all, I am sure he will be well pleased with my nephew as son-in-law, when he learns that I shall make him my heir."

"Oh," murmured Jasmine, "how can you be so generously kind?"

Old John Westwood smiled.

"Until this morning," he said, "I have been many long years since I glimpsed the Sunlit Way."

ELECTRICAL EXHIBIT OPENS TONIGHT

A message of better lighting is brought to the commercial and industrial user of electricity at the special exhibit of electrical lights, and fixtures to be held at the Chamber of Commerce rooms tonight and tomorrow afternoon and probably tomorrow evening.

The exhibit is one of three touring the country under the direction of the Edison people of the General Electric Company. It is purely an educational feature as there is a right and wrong way of lighting as there is a right and wrong way of doing other things.

Tonight at 8 o'clock there will be an exhibit and show for users of commercial electricity and at 2:30 tomorrow there will be an exhibit for users of industrial electricity. The results that can be obtained by better lighting and newer surroundings of the merchants and industrial men have been invited to attend. Should the exhibit tomorrow fall to take care of the crowd another show will be given tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

ARREST YOUTHS FOR ROBBERY; OFFICIALS SAY THEY CONFESSED

Two young men, Ray, Glenn of 1000 Main St., New Boston, and Arnold Hammett, New Boston, were arrested by New Boston police Thursday afternoon and held in connection with the robbery of the People's Corner pool and lunch room. According to Marshal Frank Hall, the young men, about 18 years of age, at first denied any part in the robbery, but later confessed. The officer separated the young men and, on close questioning, each admitted his part in the robbery, according to Marshal Hall.

The young men obtained $9.00, splitting it $4.50 each. Hammett says that he has all of his share and Glenn had only $1.20 when arrested. The young men, it is alleged, took two screws out of the Yale lock about five days ago while in the pool room, and two days later removed two additional screws, putting match stems in the places of the screws. The robbery was committed about one o'clock Thursday morning.

Suspicion was directed to the young men when Deputy Marshal Ray McCormick met the pair in the lower end of the village about two o'clock Thursday morning. He stopped them and they said they had walked home from Portsmouth, where they spent the evening. McCormick put the story down as false then as he had seen them playing pool in the People's

Enjoyable Banquet Is Given John L. Shuff

Over fifty persons were in attendance at the banquet given by T. D. Smith, district manager of the Union Central Life Insurance Company at the U. B. church basement Thursday evening when the guest of honor was John L. Shuff, manager of the Insurance Company at Cincinnati.

After a splendid menu had been served by the ladies of the church, Mr. Smith took charge as chairman and introduced the various speakers. The first speaker of the evening was Dr. F. H. Williams, one time examiner for the company, and one of the oldest policy holders in the county. He spoke of how the business was carried on along a very conservative basis and that this was brought out by the good sized dividends paid. He pointed out that many young men make a big mistake by not taking out enough insurance, adding that it is a good investment from any angle.

John Moeller was introduced as the speaker and he spoke of insurance as a protection and investment giving his personal experience along that line. Henry Hoer of the Security bank spoke on insurance from a banker's viewpoint. He related his own personal experiences and experiences he had seen. He spoke of it as a protection and as a means of providing for the future. He said that a man who takes out life insurance is one of character and is a man who establishes himself.

Mr. Hoer said that the main trouble with most people is that they put off the important matter too long and should not put off until tomorrow what can be taken care of today. He spoke of insurance as a business asset and a good investment.

John L. Shuff was the last speaker and he spent sometime giving experiences of where insurance taken at the right time had proved to be of great benefit to the ones left behind. He said that the next generation is going to ask more than what the young men of today are used to and that insurance provided one way in which the future could be taken care of. "Wives may object to insurance but widows never," he said, in explaining that some young married men do not take insurance because their wives do not think it right. Mr. Shuff said that it was the duty of every man to create something for those left behind and that in this way one was making his contribution to humanity. He also discussed insurance from an investment and business viewpoint.

His Awful Thought.
Warren was an only child, and there being no boys in the neighborhood he was obliged to play with girls, of whom there were a number. One day he appealed to his father to move, saying: "Dad, if you don't get me away from here and let me play with boys, I am afraid I'll grow up to be a regular sis."

SWEET MAMA; BEADED HOSIERY IS LATEST

Have you lamped the new beaded hosiery little Miss-Up-To-Date is wearing in staid old Portsmouth? Oh boy, but they are attractive and quite a few are being worn by members of the "Latest Style Club". The beads of course are worn around the trim ankles and those not so trim. They are fashion's very latest decree and of course, must be obeyed.

SPECIAL RELIGIOUS SERVICES

First Presbyterian Tonight
"Milestones" will be the theme of the woman-evangelist, Mrs. Victoria Booth-Clibborn Demarest, at the First Presbyterian church, tonight at 7 p. m. The Presbyterians are expected to produce a final drive for attendance and crowd the church to the very doors, since Sunday the union meetings change their location to Rigelow M. E.

There will be no services tomorrow night, and Sunday morning each pastor will occupy his own pulpit. Sunday afternoon Mrs. Demarest will deliver her famous address on "The Lily-Lessons I Have Learned From the Lily of the Valley." This is the only sermon the evangelist has been permitted to publish, and it is indeed a "pre-poem." Sunday night her subject will be "The Supreme Question." Judging from the experience of those crowds who were turned away last Sunday night and yesterday afternoon, they will be wise to make an early start to both services.

The prayer service at 2:30 p. m. each day will be transferred to Biscayne church with the changing location of the union meetings. An increasing number has been attending, and more will doubtless find their way thither as the week grows.

The organ revival preceding the service last night found Mr. Demarest at his best; indeed, these recitals have been a great joy to many who love music, and have produced a fine atmosphere for the spiritual message of the evangelist. The congregational singing continues in power. Mrs. Frank A. Colman at the piano last night, supporting the organist. At special request, Mrs. Demarest sang for the first time since her coming, with great feeling rendering "Take Jesus King," the words and music both being of her own composing.

The subject last night was "The Race," drawn from the well-known description of the Christian race course in Hebrews. She said in part:

"I must myself at one time have been one of the cloud of witnesses raising their banner at some of the famous Greek games—this made a deep impression on him. The second thing he learned was that men went into it for a very real purpose: their business was to win, and they bent everything to that great end.

"Physical, mental, moral life, all conspired to one great end, and everything save the necessary garment was laid aside for the one supreme purpose.

"What is the race for a little apprentice compared to Ours between Life and Death, Sin and Righteousness.

"Four crowns are mentioned, the Crown of Life, the Crown of Righteousness, the Crown of Rejoicing and the Crown of Glory. 'The Glory Thou hast given Me,' said the Christ, 'I have given them.'

"What a crown to be elevated in Christ's righteousness; and the joy that brings no reaction but lasts forever. But the chief prize—I have counted all things but lost that I might win Christ. Can any earthly prize equal that?

"But how can we expect to win—we are so weak? One day we are so strong and the next day we are so cowardly! We are so changeable at such variance with ourselves and with God.
The only hope we have of winning our prize is by keeping our eyes on God—'looking unto Jesus.' What He has begun He can bring to a perfect finish. He does not ask us to do what He does not do Himself. 'Who for the joy that was set before him endured the Cross despising the shame,'

"What was the prize for which He gave up all that He had—the love He had for you and me, that was 'the joy set before Him.'

"What 'weights' did He have to lay aside? He laid down His own life of His own free will. He laid aside all the things that mean much to other men. We ask if it was worth it? But He thought it was worth it. How can we escape if we neglect so great salvation? How can we neglect to run the race when He is the prize for which we contend? When He gave up so much for us—how can we refuse to run the race for Him? If we do not win Christ, we lose everything.

"What witnesses are watching us? The Father, Son and Holy Spirit; they are vitally concerned that Jesus should see that travail of His soul and be satisfied.

"Satan, the world, the flesh and the devil are vitally interested to see that you do not run that race.

"There are many witnesses from the Past. The martyrs are watching, the fathers of the church, the saints of the past; Saviour, Catherine of Sienna, Francis d'Assisi, John Wycliffe, John Knox, Wesley Luther; those noble ancestors of yours who put their whole trust in God.

"Children are witnesses that cannot be misled—they know. You will never fool a child. Be careful what you do before a child.

Men in business are watching carefully what you and I do. They may laugh at you and jeer at you for being a religious crank but in their hearts they respect you. Let your light shine—never mind watching for who sees. Just as you look back at your ancestors for strength or weakness, your children and grand-children will look back at you. The coming generations put their feet just where you put yours. 'Oh, it doesn't do me any harm!'—how I hate that contemptible phrase! I that Christian?

"A weight is not a sin, it is allowable—within the law—but it is a hindrance; whatever you do, do to the glory of God."

Franklin Avenue M. E. Church
While the attendance was not up to the mark of the evening before, which was Sunday school night, there was an attentive and interested congregation present to take part in the worship and to hear the gospel message. The splendid singing of the splendid hymns, which always precedes the sermon, proves an inspiration and prepares the people to receive the word.

A special feature of the song service was the solo by Miss Bertha Grover, the director of the choir. The minister had chosen for his text Mark 1:40-42: "The Healing of the Leper." He described leprosy as a type of sin, and the leper a type of the sinner.

The disease was inherited, contagious and fatal. Even so in sin. There is but one remedy, but one person who can help, and that is Jesus, the great Physician for soul and body.

The leper came running to Jesus, and falling down before him, thus giving expression of his humility and earnestness, addressed Him in the earnest but simple words: "If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean." Jesus immediately answered, "I will, be thou clean," and the work was done.

The work of saving a soul from sin is so difficult that no human being has ever accomplished it, but it is simple when coming to God, that He but speaks the word and the heart is cleansed.

Tonight is children's night, singing by the junior chorus and a male quartette. The address by the pastor will be on "The Ninety and Nine." A large attendance is anticipated.

First Baptist Church
Last night was a time of heart searching from beginning to end. The pastor gave a very piercing message and is here on business for God and absolutely against the sin business and believers that Christian should walk and talk according to their profession and high calling. A fountain cannot send forth both sweet and bitter water. The text was John 11:23. "Take ye away the stone." The death and resurrection of Lazarus gives us a picture of God's work in saving the sinner. First he was dead and decomposing. Like the sinner's condition, "dead in trespasses and sin," Lazarus was bound and buried revealing the sinner's helplessness. He like the earth in Gen. 1:2 is "without form and void and darkness was upon the face of the deep" unable to help itself. It took the spirit of God to move upon it—such took of miracle. We need to emphasize that regeneration like creation has it beginning in God. Jesus is ready to work that miracle but man must take away the stone. God commands, we obey, he works.

Next it was emphasized that it took no more power to raise a man dead four days when he had become foul and loathsome than to raise the ruler's child. A man may be moral and another deep in sin and degradation, it takes no more power to save the one than the other, both are guilty of the rejection of the Lord Jesus Christ and remain unsaved and under the judgment of God until God's remedy for sin and guilt is accepted. Men are saved not by their own works but by the free gift and finished work of Christ on Calvary. Salvation is all of God but there are stones that hinder God from saving which must be removed. This is man's part.

We note a few of the stones. Indifference—Men and women are going on living in indifference while their souls are exposed to the wrath of God. Pride—Too proud to confess their sin for fear of what people will think or say about them.

Profession—Their cry is Lord, Lord, but has no Christ.

Gossip—Using the tongue to blight and blast the life of another.

Many other stones were mentioned and then the speaker shouted out, "Men must all be called away that the Lord Jesus may have the opportunity to call the dead to life."

He next pictured Lazarus in Bethany sitting at the table in fellowship and communion with Jesus. John 12:2. Such is the experience of sinners resurrected.

A great and deep interest was manifested, hearts were stirred and the people left the church last night in deep religious thought.

Baptism this evening. No services on Saturday.

Mr. Fred Meiss will bring the message in song tonight.

Trinity M. E. Church
"O, my son, Absalom, my son Absalom! would God I had died for thee, O Absalom, my son, my son!"—2nd Samuel, the 18th chapter and the 33rd verse. From the reading of the text to the last word of the sermon, the large congregation assembled at Trinity church last evening followed the pastor, Dr. N. E. Butler, with almost breathless attention, as he told the tragic story of Absalom, picturing the grief of a heart-broken father.

There may be some good come out of war, but the vast majority of results are evil. If you would travel through the Southland today, you would find in the hearts of some of the people, especially in the hearts of the women, a bitterness similar to that felt at the time of the War of the Rebellion. I say in the hearts of the women, because they are called upon to give up more, to suffer more than men. It may be no doubt take fifty years or more to get over the War of the War, and I want to say that when Mr. Wilson's aspirations were defeated at the Peace Conference, the aspirations of humanity were defeated. We will never get free from war until justice and mercy are present at the peace table and they have their way there. War always leaves evil results.

The war about which we study tonight was caused by the selfish ambition of a man. How great a configuration a little spark will kindle! Absalom's spark at the gate, we are told in the record, and stole the hearts of the people, and when strong enough rebelled against his own father. At the Valley of Jehonathan, Absalom was slain, and two messengers were sent back to break the news to the father. The first messenger was the better runner and when he came up to where David was watching, the question David asked was not of the conflict but how Absalom fared. The first runner perished the question, and when the second runner appeared, David inquired of him, "Is the young man Absalom safe?" and he answered, "would that all your enemies were such as he." Then David cried out in the words of the text, "O Absalom, my son, my son Absalom!"

Sadness for the dead is always a sacred thing, grief over those who have gone. I have heard it said by some that they wanted their flowers when living, while I want some flowers while living, yet I want some when I am dead. It is a sad thing to see one lowered in the grave unloved, with no one to care for them. Even though unworthy, as in this case, yet we have to bow down in respect to this father, and how close is the sentiment expressed by David to that of Christ on the cross: "Father, forgive them, they know not what they do." David's grief came from a threefold motive. David had thought here was a boy that would bring great honor to the family. He was noted among Israel for his talents, and it was said that among all the sons of Israel none was so beautiful as he. But now he was gone and David could not look upon him again; he was gone never to return. Jesus told the story of the son who went into a far country and wasted his substance in riotous living, and though he came back home at last, what must have been the terrible grief that went through the heart of the father when he saw what his son had become while in that country.

"The Man Who Might Have Been a Hero" will be the subject upon which Dr. Butler will speak tonight, and it being Sunday school night, a great congregation is expected to hear him. Mr. Ellis will be the Minute Man. These short talks by the minute men are being greatly enjoyed by those who hear them. Special music at all the meetings. Sunday will be a "big day," the subject for the morning being "The Young Man Who Changed the History of the World," and in the evening "The Unpardonable Sin." The Children's Chorus at every service. Miss Beatrice Stewart will be the soloist for this evening.

"Sons of the Abbot"
MacNab, Abbott and Abbotson are English and Scottish names springing from the same source and mean son of the abbot, MacNab simply being the Anglicized form of the Gaelic "Mac-na-Abh." But although the clergy were in those days bound to celibacy it does not mean that there was some scandal in the family. The organization of the medieval abbots was not always purely religious and laymen often held important administrative posts in these houses. Hence it would be quite in order for an abbot to be the father of a family. Moreover it sometimes happened that an already married man would renounce his state and take the vows of holy orders, in which case his sons also would be known as sons of the abbot.

Dream Aided in Cure.
A knowledge of the significance of dream-states has within recent years enabled psycho-analysts to effect cures in many cases where ordinary psycho-analysis has failed. For example, a woman unmarried suffering from hysteria-nervousness dreamed that she was tormented by the fall of a culture. This woman in her youth had read Greek and Egyptian literature, in which the culture has a distinct symbolic value in relation to sex. This lady had experienced a very violent attack during this period, and her dreams were connected with the culture symbol. A psycho-analyst to whom she went very quickly got to the root of the trouble and was able to effect a complete cure.

C. the thrilling of geese saved Rome from surprise and capture by enemies.

Idea of Canal Is Old.
The project of a canal across the Isthmus of Panama is about four hundred years old. Balboa and other Spanish explorers urged such construction before the emperor of Spain, and made surveys in search of a feasible line as early as 1525.

TRouble Starts When Marshal Hall Tries To Quiet Children; Two Women Arrested

Marshal Frank Hall of New Boston did not know what he was going to run into when he made a trip to the west end of Grace street in that village at 8:45 last night to disperse a group of children who were said to be annoying a sick person.

He investigated the complaint and says he found children who should have been in home at curfew time which is 8:30 o'clock. When he ordered them to their homes trouble started. According to Marshal Hall, Mrs. Dora James, mother of children in the group, took exception to his orders and proceeded to tell him who he was and what he could do and could not do. He threatened to arrest her and that only served to bring more trouble on the officer's head. Marshal Hall then placed the woman under arrest and he did not do this act without difficulty for when he reached the mayor's office he found himself minus his watch chain and his tie and collar torn. According to the officer he does not know exactly what happened but thinks the entire feminine population of that end of the street jumped on him. During the argument Marshal Hall claims Mrs. Ida Stanger, a relative of Mrs. James, opened up on him and called him names and said that he could not arrest her, although he did take Mrs. James. After locking Mrs. James behind the bars, Marshal Hall made another trip to the former battle ground and placed Mrs. Stanger under arrest. Both women were charged with interfering with an officer. A few minutes later male relatives of the women called at the mayor's office and started trouble anew. When one of the men walked inside the railing at the mayor's office he was picked up and put back over the railing by Deputy Marshal John Henry.

The women were released late Thursday night on bond by Mayor J. S. Davis. They will have a hearing tonight.

EARTHQUAKE IN ALBANIA KILLS 200; DESTROYS HOMES OF 18,000 PERSONS

Photos show (above) a temporary shelter made by one family from debris at Elbasan and (below) scene of desolation at Tepelene.

The worst earthquake in many generations recently wiped out the villages of Tepelene and Elbasan, Albania. Two hundred persons were killed, 2,000 homes destroyed and 18,000 persons made homeless. These photos give some idea of the ruin and desolation caused by the quake.

INJUNCTION MADE PERMANENT

The temporary injunction granted some weeks ago in the case of Harold E. Phillips against George Bumgardner, to prevent the defendant from engaging in the horse-drawing business on Third street, has been made permanent by Judge Thomas, according to an entry filed Friday in the office of the clerk of courts.

Phillips bought Bumgardner's shop last September and he brought suit when the latter opened up another shop nearby as a competitor in express violation of the terms of a contract, it was claimed. The injunction restrains Bumgardner from committing any of the acts complained of until Sept. 24, 1921, as the order is effective until then.

Attorney W. J. Hobstetter brought the suit for the plaintiff and Attorney A. R. Campbell appeared for the defendant.

Burns Dragged 40 Feet By Auto; May Die

Mrs. William Andrews of Findlay street left Friday for Cincinnati, being called there on account of the critical condition of her nephew, Henry Burns, aged 22, who was run down by an automobile in that city last night. Burns was dragged 40 feet before the machine could be halted and it is believed he will die.

Cooking Eggs With a Bit of String.
Cooking eggs and then returning them to their normal state is a secret trick practiced by India fakirs. The apparatus consists of a leather boot, and four pieces of string. An egg, after being placed in a sling made from these simple articles, is whirled high above the head and kept whirling at a great speed. No one can understand how the time required to cook the egg is reckoned, for no clock or watch is used. During the performance, the fakir talks to his admiring audience, and cannot therefore be accused of counting the time. Should a customer wish a hard-boiled egg to be returned to its soft state, he need only speak. A little more skillful maneuvering and the egg is as fresh as if it had just been laid.

Baboons Afraid of Airplanes.
Norman Chase, an English traveler, says at Kaimachi, he noticed a number of baboons which were in the vicinity showing unmistakable signs of fear. They crowded together and whimpered, giving every indication that something unusual had disturbed them. Mr. Chase's dog, a well-bred Alsatian, and known to be plucky and fearless, also became uneasy, and appeared to be in dread of something. On looking round for the cause of all the trouble, Mr. Chase observed the airplane flying overhead at a comparatively low altitude. The sound of the engine and the huge birdlike appearance of the plane no doubt upset the equilibrium of the baboons.

Yawning Said to Induce Sleep.
The last suggestion for the cure of mild attacks of sleeplessness is the "imitation yawn" system. It has been tried with considerable success by the writer himself. Try it for yourself. The next time you feel wakeful at night, just close your eyes and indulge in a few long drawn-out and conscientious yawns. By the time you have completed the sixth or seventh it is more than probable that a certain amount of sleep will be steadily creeping over your senses. The explanation is simple enough. Each time one yawns, the bad air in the lungs is more or less expelled, and this expulsion automatically induces restfulness. Moreover, the mere sound of a yawn, by reason of its sleepy associations, will help to bring about sleep.

Re r e Awarded Fight To Wilson

We Pass On Controversy

NEW YORK, Mar. 18.—One judge, Jack Tolette, said Mike O'Dowd, of St. Paul, won back the middleweight championship at Madison Square Garden last night.

The other judge, Tommy Shortell, said Johnny Wilson, the New York Italian, had successfully defended his title.

This put the final decision in the fifteen-round bout between the pair up to the referee, Johnny McAvoy. He thought a moment and decided in favor of Wilson. Thus the New Yorker retains his title.

Fifteen thousand persons, wildly excited, Irishmen, Italians, left the building arguing. A dozen fist fights broke up.

It was a crude sort of fight. Wilson got $40,000 for his end, and O'Dowd $20,000. Two boys, Gorman and Baird, put up a better battle earlier in the evening for a few hundred dollars. Neither man had much science. Neither man seemed to be hitting with any great force last night. Fifteen thousand persons paid well over $100,000 to see a poor show for a championship battle saved only by a great preliminary.

MEET TONIGHT

NEW YORK, Mar. 18.—Battling Levisky and Charley Welbert, of Newark, N. J., will meet in a 15 round bout here tonight.

Bob Roper, of Chicago, and Homer Smith, of Kalamazoo, Mich., are the principals in another 15 round match.

THIS IS NIGHT OF BASKETBALL CLASSIC

Everything is all set for the basketball classic to be presented in the high school gym tonight with the famous Buffalo Germans now sailing under the title of the Orioles, clashing with the best professional team of this section, Baesman's Selects who will endeavor to put a tick in the winning streak of the world's champions.

Besides the big battle, starting at 8 o'clock there will be a dandy preliminary starting at seven. In this contest the Birelow Specials boasting of 30 straight victories this season will play the Portsmouth College of Business five which is a good match for the Specialists.

The Selects are in fine trim for this big game and they fully expect to give the famous team a big surprise. The basketball fans of Portsmouth will witness the best basketball contest of several seasons when they see these two well trained fives play 40 minutes in the P. H. S. gym.

The sale of reserved seats held at the Chamber of Commerce rooms Thursday resulted in nearly every one of the $1.50 seats being taken which assures a good crowd.

The general admission is to be $1.00. The Selects will have all their regulars in the lineup with Doll and Edwards at the forward positions, Baesman center and Barber, Kent and Kendall at guards.

Sewell Is A Fixture

CLEVELAND, O., March 18.—Joe Sewell, who joined the Cleveland Indians last fall, is assured of his job at shortstop this season, according to advices received here from the training camp at Dallas.

The chances of Ernest Jeanes, Texas seal-pro, remaining with the champions also are bright.

The practice work practically ended with yesterday's long drill. The Indians play the Kansas City Blues today in a charity contest. It is believed Manager Spawer will try out Rerun Pichers Orlowski, Pott and Lindsay.

Volley Ball, as well as baseball, is a game full of surprises, and not the least of these was when the lowly Bankers last night rose up and smote the High School Faculty in two games out of three, the scores being 12-21, 21-10 and 21-6. The Bankers were joyful after the game, while the Faculty were wondering what struck them. The truth was the Bankers played a mighty fine game. Their captain set them a good example and all of them followed it, but Fritz, was the best pupil for he played a star game. Masie and Jones played the best games for the High School.

The lineups were as follows:
Bankers: Robt. McNamara, Capt. Walter Ferguson, Wesley Fritz, Albert Uhl, John Brunny and Geo. P. Horst.
High School Faculty: Coach McComb, Dale Jones, Prof. Appel, Prof. Eccles, O. D. Waldon, Wm. Masie.
The Wholesalers at last got into the 700 percentage column and very nearly got the Allies into the cellar last night when they took three straight games from them by the scores of 21-9, 21-7 and 21-10. Means and Cornutte were the star players for the Wholesalers, while Herms and Heer played fine games for the Allies, but team work was lacking.

There will be no volley ball games this afternoon, both having been postponed. The High School Faculty have postponed both their games during vacation week, as most of their team member will be out of town.

Sheppard Defeats Mike Kearney

HUNTINGTON, March 18.—Jack Sheppard has been fighting professionally for ten years.

Mike Kearney has been fighting professionally less than three years. One need read no further to determine who won their ten-round bout in the arena at Camden Park, surrounded by the growing hills of Wayne county. The result is indicated in the foregoing paragraph.

Sheppard was the victor and it was his greater experience, combined with a digger-like left that fairly flew to its mark with deadly accuracy. His generalship, the knowledge of ring tactics, gained by years of long service inside the hemp circle, was what enabled the Cincinnati lad to defeat the local idol.

Tournament Opens Today

COLUMBUS, O., Mar. 18.—Eight Ohio high school basketball teams were here today to participate in the invitation basketball tournament, staged by the Boost Ohio committee, of Ohio State university. Team captains met at 11:30 o'clock this morning to draw for competitors in the preliminary rounds. The first game was scheduled for 3 p. m. Finals and semi-finals will be played tomorrow.

Teams playing in the tournament are: Lincoln High, Cleveland; Athens High, Athens; Mt. Healthy, Cincinnati; Scott High, Toledo; Central High, Xenia; West High, Columbus; Central High, Akron, and McKinley High, Canton.

Local Five Defeated

Portsmouth Holy Redeemer school basketball five lost a one-sided game to the St. Joseph's five of Ironton at the latter place Thursday by a score of 58 to 33.

The Ironton five proved to be too fast for the locals who were on the defensive all the way through. Kraus was the star player for the locals getting most of the 23 points. The local school was represented by Kraus and Dadoosky at forwards, Fisher at center and Stokes and Walters guards. The Ironton team plays St. Mary's five this afternoon in Wilhelmette hall.

Frisch Is Injured

NEW YORK, Mar. 18.—Frank Frisch, the New York National's star infielder, wrenched his left ankle in a training game at San Antonio yesterday and may not be able to appear with the team until the season opens. It was reported in dispatches here today, Frisch sustained the injury in a first-fist slide to third. The Giants' squad will leave tonight for Dallas.

The New York Americans regulars were at Baton Rouge today for the opening of their exhibition series with the Brooklyn Nationals.

TENDENCIES IN SLANG

HERE is comfort for those who abhor slang in the observations made by one who has recently investigated the subject. The observer finds that none of the bywords or parrot phrases now in vogue originated during the last year, and holds out the hope to language purists that the passion for slang is passing. This is an unjustified conclusion. As the observer himself intimates, there might be cause for concern if the creation of slang were to cease, for Prof. Brander Matthews and other language students will tell you that the constant addition of slang to a language is a sign that it is a virile, growing thing; and the corollary is that when slang ceases to creep into the language the language is moribund. We may be passing through a period of quiescence, so far as slang is concerned, but the fondness for it, or the need of it, has by no means passed.

Facile as the English tongue is for uses, it is not yet perfect. There are many ideas which can be expressed with it only in an awkward way, and the function of a considerable part of the newly coined words and phrases which find their way into the language as slang is to simplify the expression of these ideas, or to make it possible to express them in a way that is not trite. When slang serves this purpose it often becomes good usage. If it fills no need it soon dies.

GETTING BACK TO THE FARMS

NO figures are available to show what movement, if any, is under way on the part of persons in the towns to get back to the rural homes which they abandoned to earn big wages in industrial plants during and since the war. It was hoped that one good effect from the slowing down of industry would be the creation of more interest in farming.

Under the stimulus of war conditions the farmers of the United States planted record crops, and since the war the decrease in acreage has not been more than 15 per cent. With the sharp drop in prices and the drift of so many farmers toward the cities, it must be plain that a crisis in agriculture will be created within a short time.

Reports from Kansas are that wheat growers have sowed slightly less than 10 per cent less acreage in wheat than the preceding year, but the sharp decline in the quotations for wheat will probably have the effect of causing more marked reductions next year, unless prices are advanced.

Farmers will yield to the lure of wages and the advantages of the cities unless farming is reasonably profitable. The idea of a paternalistic government may not be a pleasant one, but congress should do what it can to aid in financing present and prospective farmers, just as it aids, through the banking system, the manufacturers and the business men.

THAT CASE OF NERVES

EVERY few days something is carried in the news dispatches to give color to the belief that the world is still suffering from a bad case of nerves, caused by the momentous events of the world war and occurrences subsequent to the war.

It is well known how nervous France has been ever since the signing of the armistice, and the French have been persistent in the demand that Germany be disarmed completely and that guards be made effective against the possibility of an invasion. Poland has shared in a similar feeling, Russia being the object of fear.

Spain, it now appears, has been aroused in the night in a cold sweat, and has had visions of encroachments by the United States in Africa, where Spain is precariously holding on to certain territory she is pleased to call her colonies. The cause of this feeling is the visit of the president of Liberia to the United States.

No secret is made of the desire of President King of the small African republic to borrow a little money from the foster parent of the country that occupies a space on the west coast of Africa. Spain is obsessed with the idea that if Uncle Sam lends the money he will want a naval station in Liberia, and would thus become a menace to the interests of Spain.

Although her fears are groundless as far as this country is concerned, perhaps Spain is suffering from a hang-over from the Spanish-American war, which resulted so disastrously to her after considerable boasting had been done for the Spanish arms. Spain seems to be addicted to the belief that the United States has colonial ambitions.

Spanish officials should consider this a good time to remain as quiet as possible until the attack of nerves has passed. A soporific might be advisable in case the patient shows too much of a tendency to muscular activity, which usually has the effect of aggravating any condition affecting the nervous organism.

If Emma Goldman ever gets back to the good old United States she should know how to appreciate a real country.

As long as a man's wife can keep him guessing she need not worry about the influence of other women; no man likes monotony.

In these days of checks and drafts the person who draws much money out of the bank should be prepared to take his own chances.

One test of good control is to be able to keep on your feet when paying taxes.

Clothes may not make the man, but a woman's clothes sometimes break him.

Anyhow, the public has the satisfaction of seeing the profiteers put on a lean streak.

The Savage's Salvation

By Frederic J. Haskin

WASHINGTON, D. C. 18—Thousands of wealthy persons are now booking trips to Hawaii and a good many to Tahiti and other South Sea Islands. These places, of which you seldom heard a few years ago, are now in all the prints. Numerous books are written about them. Pictures of them are painted. They are the fad.

And the romantic element in each of these places—the real center of interest—is a native population which still wears picturesque clothes and still wears picturesque native customs. The civilized man seems suddenly to have discovered that the primitive man is an interesting chap, worth knowing for his own sake.

When you come to think about it, this attitude toward the Tahitians and the Hawaiians is probably the beginning of a great change in the attitude of civilization toward savagery. Only consider what the attitude toward the savage has been in the past. First he must be conquered. Every savage or primitive people on the face of the globe has been more or less shut up by some civilized nation. Then the savage must be civilized. He must be given clothes and religion. He must be taught to farm and make change. Incidentally he has nearly always been introduced to whiskey, morphine, cocaine, tuberculosis, and various other perquisites of civilization.

The civilizing process has been almost as hard on the savage as being conquered. The classic case of the Hawaiians who were induced by the missionaries to wear clothes, with the result that they all caught cold and many of them died, is typical. It may be said that almost no part of civilization has really benefited the savage. He simply isn't ready for it. His only hope of survival is to be allowed to go on being a savage in peace. And that is what, at last, the civilized man seems inclined to let him do.

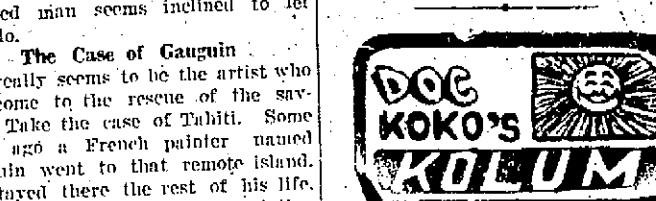

—The Case of Ganguin

It really seems to be the artist who has come to the rescue of the savage. Take the case of Tahiti. Some years ago a French painter named Ganguin went to that remote island. He stayed there the rest of his life, living with the natives and painting them. He became famous. He suddenly called the attention of the civilized world to the fact that the Tahitians were a most picturesque and beautiful people, who should be preserved as they are, like any other wonderful native, not converted into commonplace civilized persons. Then Somerset Maugham, an English novelist wrote a novel based on the life of Ganguin, and in this he told most effectively how the great artist, hampered by the ugliness of commercialism, had found beauty and peace in the tropical island. Third came another artist in words, Frederick O'Brien, and wrote a book about Tahiti and neighboring islands which was one of the most popular travel books ever written. In effect all three of these artists were apologists for the savage as he is. They said, in the first place, that he is a picturesque and interesting fellow, who is not loathing any one, and who ought to be allowed to live his life as he pleases both for his own sake and for that of the rest of humanity. In the second place, these artists limited that perhaps civilization is not such a blessed thing as it is cracked up to be—that possibly the civilized man could even learn something about the art of living from the savage. Such a thought would have been considered insane a generation ago. Today it is merely regarded as mildly heretical.

The new and thriving science of anthropology also comes to the support of the artist in this contention. The anthropologists have been studying primitive man with unusual zeal. They find that in some respects at least he may be considered the superior of the civilized man. For instance, the primitive man has a better sense of beauty. His pottery, his weavings, his dwellings, his dances, his ceremonies are all picturesque and often of high artistic merit. In civilization the real appreciation of beauty seems to be limited to a very few. The majority of us have lost all taste. The things we use and wear, the houses we live in, our dances, and ceremonies are for the most part ugly and often even grotesque.

—Nose Rings and Hobbie Skirts

One woman scientist, Elsie Clews Parsons, has gone still further and shown that most of the queer beliefs, customs, taboos and superstitions of primitive life, which we ridicule, survive in some form in civilization. She has shown that the hobbie skirt is a very near relation to the nose ring. Some of our lively "parties" are savage orgies with little changed except the costumes. Many, if not most of our politicians are medicine men, and can't.

Little Mary was taking a huge mouthful of orange.

Mother: "Mary! don't swallow the whole!"

Mary: "What hole?"

—Getting His Choice

"Is this the lawyer who is going to defend me?" asked the murderer as he looked at the young lawyer.

"Yes," answered the judge, "he's your lawyer."

—Absent Without Leaving

"I fear you have a new maid."

"We haven't any more."

"What did she leave?"

"Nothing worth mentioning. On her second night here she took about all the portable furnishings."

—The Scarp

Representative Frank interrupted the reading of a report to say:

"Official language is always rather ludicrous. Once two scrubmen in government employ had an argument, as a result of which the weaker vessel was laid up for some days."

"An official inquiry was duly held, and the victorious scrubman received a letter, which said, among other things:

"Is it true, as reported, that said Mrs. Hagan received certain ocular and nasal contusions at your hands?"

"The scrubwoman in official language wrote back:

"I regret to say that the answer is in the infirmary."

—Cause and Effect

Home: "Why do they tread grapes with their feet to make wine?"

Brew: "To put the kick in it."

—Aw Gwan

Look at that cow over there chewing that wad of grass! She's been chewing it for a solid hour, I know.

"Do you think you could do that?"

O, I reckon I could.

—The Plight of Love

There were two doves

Sat on a tree,

And they were dumb,

As you would be;

For he loved her—

And she loved him—

Poor simpering fools

Out—on—a limb.

—Up In the Air

"Bill gave me a drink of his Raisin Jack last night, and believe me, it knocked me sky high."

"That wasn't Raisin Jack."

"Then what was it?"

"It must be been Sceptic Jack."

—Very Likely

He—So the minister this morning preached a scathing sermon on the extravagance of women.

She—Yes, and there his wife sat with a $75 hat on.

He—That was probably the cause of the sermon.—Boston Transcript.

—Wise Sayings

The building metaphors of youth frequently get twisted.

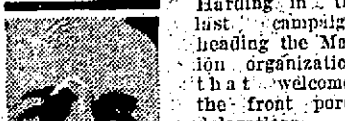

Instead of trying to kill two birds with one stone, use a shotgun.

When two persons tackle a duet it looks as if they ought to sing it in half the time one could—but they can't.

In The Day News

D. R. CRISSENGER
President Harding has named his personal friend, D. R. Crissinger, of Marion, Ohio, to be controller of the currency.

D. R. CRISSENGER

Crissinger was a Democrat, but supported Harding in the last campaign, heading the Marion organization that welcomed the front porch delegations.

Crissinger was a Democratic candidate for congress in 1904. He is an attorney, president of the National City Bank and Trust Company of Marion.

Marion Steamship Company, the Marion County Telephone Company. He owns many farms and is interested in stock raising.

—Hole and Whole

Little Mary was taking a huge mouthful of orange.

Mother: "Mary! don't swallow the whole!"

Mary: "What hole?"

—Getting His Choice

"Is this the lawyer who is going to defend me?" asked the murderer as he looked at the young lawyer.

"Yes," answered the judge, "he's your lawyer."

—Absent Without Leaving

"I fear you have a new maid."

"We haven't any more."

"What did she leave?"

"Nothing worth mentioning. On her second night here she took about all the portable furnishings."

—The Scarp

Representative Frank interrupted the reading of a report to say:

"Official language is always rather ludicrous. Once two scrubmen in government employ had an argument, as a result of which the weaker vessel was laid up for some days."

"An official inquiry was duly held, and the victorious scrubman received a letter, which said, among other things:

"Is it true, as reported, that said Mrs. Hagan received certain ocular and nasal contusions at your hands?"

"The scrubwoman in official language wrote back:

"I regret to say that the answer is in the infirmary."

—Cause and Effect

Home: "Why do they tread grapes with their feet to make wine?"

Brew: "To put the kick in it."

—Aw Gwan

Look at that cow over there chewing that wad of grass! She's been chewing it for a solid hour, I know.

"Do you think you could do that?"

O, I reckon I could.

—The Plight of Love

There were two doves

Sat on a tree,

And they were dumb,

As you would be;

For he loved her—

And she loved him—

Poor simpering fools

Out—on—a limb.

—Up In the Air

"Bill gave me a drink of his Raisin Jack last night, and believe me, it knocked me sky high."

"That wasn't Raisin Jack."

"Then what was it?"

"It must be been Sceptic Jack."

—Very Likely

He—So the minister this morning preached a scathing sermon on the extravagance of women.

She—Yes, and there his wife sat with a $75 hat on.

He—That was probably the cause of the sermon.—Boston Transcript.

NEW YORK, March 18—Thoughts while strolling around New York: Flashily dressed women with run down heels. It is a Gotham characteristic. And when they grow stout they wear big pearl ear-drops. A Refugee Home for Fallen Girls. A clammy, clinging blackness about it. A benevolent squire type—ruddy cheeked and rotund. But you never know in this town. He may be a gambling house capper.

Detectives watching a newspaper from all cities stand. Many fleeing criminals are caught there. Seeking news of their home town. The smell of the subway. A distinct odor. No body seems to be interested in baseball this year. Hope Hampton, of the films. And what a huge diamond ring.

So this is Broadway. What to do! What to do! Nothing left but ferry rides and hurry up photo shops for pleasure seekers. Still at my age I should worry. Clara Briggs suggests that I take up croquet. Shops devoted to high art. Three in a row. Spring is near. The orange drink places are being brightened up.

Short box overcoats with pearl buttons. There's Nicky Arnstein. He resembles a Spanish grandee. The craze for candy seems to have died out. Or perhaps too many opened up little stores along Broadway. Anyway, most of them have closed up.

All the theatres advertising sacred Sunday night concerts. I wonder how it would do to have a "Sacred Sunday Balloon Ascension." Too many laws. And not enough enforcement. I wish I were a lawbreaker. I'd unuzzle all the dogs and make the covert charge a penal offense.

Starch peddlers are beginning to appear. Central Park South. Clubs. Marble front apartments. An atmosphere of wealth. And yet lacking the dignity of Park Avenue. There's something strange about the dignity of a street. Similar to that surrounding a

He is a writer who has entertained people in almost every land—a scholar and a gentleman. He comes to New York only now and then to see his publishers and magazine editors. He never leaves his hotel room. A strange affliction attacking the pigments of his skin destroyed his eyes before he could be checked and he is forced to wear heavy, close-fitting black glasses. In another country he lives alone with a few servants on a large estate. And yet he writes of joyous things and not once has a note of bitterness crept into his works. At night he sits at his hotel window and looks out over the flickering and flashing incandescent brilliancy and dreams. Then he returns to his home and writes.

Some wag suggests that Carnos's real relapse will come when he gets his bill for medical services. He had seven of the highest priced doctors in New York. Many of them have a fixed charge of $100 for a single visit and on call at all hours of the day and night. There has been no denial of the published story that Carnos's treatment after all had been abandoned. He did not embrace the faith. He members of his household are said to have a deep interest in Christian Science and sought about treatment from two practitioners at the time when even Carnos's secretary admitted to reporters that hope was abandoned. Doctors say that Carnos's will to live survived and so far there has been no controversy as the Christian Scientists have remained discreetly silent.
